Heat Wave Kills 15 In Eastern States In Last Three Days

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mid-June heat wave and drought today threatened crops and fanned fears of serious forest fires in the north-eastern parts of the United States.

Meanwhile, as the death toll in the New England heat belt mounted to 15 in the last three days, the flash floods and storms in North Texas took the lives of 11 persons.

Austrian Treaty Hopeful

By R. H. SHACKFORD

PARIS (UP)—Foreign Minister Robert Schuman told the French cabinet today that agreement on an Austrian peace treaty might be reached before Sept. 1.

Schuman's statement was the most optimistic made by any of the Big Four Foreign Ministers so far. It held out hope that the current meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers might achieve some limited agreements.

The optimism over Austria apparently was based on signs that the Russians were prepared to abandon Yugoslav claims to territory and reparations from Austria.

Schuman's statement was made in a foreign affairs report to the cabinet a few hours before he conferred privately with the other two western foreign ministers, and before resumption of secret four-power talks.

Russia Orders Much British Equipment

LONDON (Reuter)—Russia has ordered £17,000,000 ($68,000,000) worth of British engineering equipment outside the list scheduled in the 1947 Anglo-Soviet trade agreement, Sir Greville Maginness told the Russo-British Chamber of Commerce here today.

The orders had been placed since the date of the 1947 agreement, he said.

Sir Greville, in his presidential address, added that the economies of the two countries were complementary and should provide a satisfactory basis for mutual trade on a larger scale than hitherto.

End Of Ontario's Costly Drought Appears In Sight

TORONTO (BUP)—The end was in sight for thousands of Ontario's drought weary farmers today, but for many it was their 20th day without crop-saving rain.

Rain fell Tuesday and Tuesday night in most areas of southern and central Ontario, but completely missed Toronto and St. Thomas.

Further thunderstorms were forecast for today across southern and central regions, but still none for Toronto.

Although the rain meant saving of many crops, it came too late to help hay and strawberries. Farmers had reconciled themselves to one of the poorest hay and strawberry harvests on record.

Department of Agriculture officials described the drought as the worst in the history of the province and damage was estimated at well over $100,000,000.

While many farmers saw the end of their drought problems, municipal water systems reported dangerously low reservoirs. The general picture in southern and central regions, they said, was still bad.

Epidemic In North Increases

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—A three-week-long epidemic in this northern British Columbia town and district had swelled today to practically emergency proportions.

With approximately 1,000 persons sick, six town doctors were hard-pressed while eight hospital nurses in the crowded 80-room hospital were described as badly in need of rest.

An emergency hospital regime may be necessary, officials said, clearing practically all wards to handle only epidemic victims.

An appeal for 15 to 20 graduate nurses was sent out Tuesday by T. Musto, hospital superintendent. Doctors described the infection as not particularly serious but containing possibilities for complications which might be.

NOT IDENTIFIED

Dr. T. Patterson, government health officer, said a virus of unknown origin appeared to be the trouble-maker.

Throat glands swelled first, followed by severe sore throats, headaches and high temperatures. Abscesses in the throat glands were named as one complication.

It was also reported that the infection has attacked centres surrounding Prince George, 500 miles north of Vancouver.

Burns Lake, Smithers and Hazelton, all in the Cariboo, were named specifically.

Canadian Exports Of Meat To U.S. Up

PARIS (Reuter)—Canada exported a greatly-increased number of live cattle to the United States in the last year and "for the first time in many years the United States became a net importer of meat," the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization reported Tuesday.

The F.A.O., holding its annual conference here, issued a report on production and consumption of food throughout the world in the last 12 months.

The report added that at the same time Canadian exports of livestock products to Britain have declined.

Wage War By Air On Grasshopper Plague In Western States

SHERIDAN, Wyo. (AP)—The big air war to head off a new grasshopper plague started today on the ranges of Wyoming and Montana.

From five bases, poison-laden planes were taking off on the first flights of a month-long aerial "bombing" campaign. The goal is to wipe out the grasshoppers in their favorite nesting grounds.

"We are just beginning," said Leo Iverson of the United States Department of Agriculture.

For three weeks, parties of bug experts under Iverson's supervision rode over a 30,000,000-acre danger zone, picking out the worst grasshopper concentration places.

They pinpointed on county maps the areas where the "hopper" population was critical—where 30 to 200 could be counted in a square yard.

New poisons concealed in a bran the grasshoppers like will be spread over these areas by planes. These insecticides are so lethal only four-tenths of one ounce in five pounds of bran will cover an acre. The department expects a 99 per cent kill.

13 Hurt As Large Industrial Blocks Gutted By Flames

VANCOUVER (CP)—Thirteen persons were injured early today in a four-alarm fire which raged uncontrolled for nearly two hours through a main industrial section of East-Central Vancouver.

An early estimate of damage by Fire Chief R. M. MacDonald was, "Easily more than $1,000,000."

The fire broke out at 2.18 a.m. (P.D.T.) and was declared under control at 4 a.m.

It had razed or partially destroyed: Two fuel companies, a refractory plant, an asbestos plant, two paper stock companies, two lumber yards, a cafe, a war salvage firm, a stone-cutting plant, a welding shop, a pier, an unknown number of small boats and a private home.

Three of the 13 fire casualties are in hospital. They are: John Erickson, 63, who suffered multiple burns and other injuries when he was trapped in this flaming houseboat, one of 14 moored in the fire area.

George Ingram, 24, ambulance driver, recovering from shock, suffered when he dove into the waters of false creek to rescue Erickson.

Capt. C. Madison, who suffered a punctured foot while fighting the blaze.

In addition, 10 firemen are reported suffering from minor injuries. They were not held in hospital.

A 30-mile-an-hour east wind, blowing in gusts from the Strait of Georgia and up False Creek, lifted the fire at one point across Main Street to endanger additional industrial buildings worth millions of dollars. The advance was checked quickly, however, before the flying sparks could spread further.

Chief MacDonald said about 500 firemen—every available man, including those off duty—fought the blaze. He said all equipment available was used.

A district chief described the blaze as one of the most serious and spectacular in the city's history.

Explosion Preceded Blaze

The fire consumed an area roughly three blocks in length and on a two-block front. It is bounded by Main Street on the north and the southern tip of False Creek on the south. The area lies about two blocks south of the Canadian National Railway station.

Cause of the fire is unknown, although reports said an explosion preceded it.

The Vancouver fire boat played streams of water on a small dock, which, however, was burned completely.

Fifty residents of houseboats bunched a few belongings with them when they fled to safety, uncertain whether firemen could save their homes.

A loudspeaker mounted on a police car guided fire fighters whose hose lines littered the streets. All district traffic was completely cut off.

Many residents of the area, fearing a wind shift that would have sent sparks flying over tinder-dry roof tops, packed a few belongings in case of evacuation. Numerous small fires created by the wind-whipped sparks dotted the immediate area, but were either immediately snuffed out or fell in harmless spots.

The wind was so strong at times that fire ladders tumbled.

Ports Throughout Britain Strike-Free After 6 Weeks

BRISTOL (Reuter)—Ports throughout Britain today became strike-free for the first time in six weeks when dockers at Bristol and Avonmouth, in the west of England, resumed work.

This ended a series of disputes which arose out of the clash between two Canadian seamen's unions. The trouble, which at one time spread to Liverpool on the northwest coast, began April 1 when the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.) called a worldwide strike of its members, and the Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.) stepped in and signed a contract with the employers.

Avonmouth dockers decided to support the Canadian strikers on the freighter Gulfside, which was then in port, in spite of appeals by their union leaders to keep out of the Canadian dispute.

Later the Canadian ship Montreal City became involved in the dispute with the dockers refusing to unload her because she was manned by a crew of the Seafarers' International Union.

The strike collapsed Tuesday when the strikers' leader, Joe Doody, said they were beaten by the government's refusal to allow troops to load the Montreal City and the owners' decision that she would remain idle until the strikers returned to work.

Million Farm Workers Quit Working For Day In Italy

ROME (CP)—More than 1,000,000 farm workers left Italy's ripening fields today in a 24-hour agricultural strike led by Communists. Heavy police reinforcements guarded against outbreaks.

The farm strike was accompanied by the threat of a general strike by some 5,000,000 followers of the Communist-controlled General Labor Confederation.

The farm workers were called into town for big leftist demonstrations in support of localized farm strikes which have been in progress for 28 days.

The local strikes occurred in the rich Po Valley in the north, the farm area around Rome and the barren soil of Apulia in the south. Five persons have been killed, scores injured and hundreds arrested for acts of violence in the local walkouts.

13 Injured; Property Damage Estimated At Million In 3 Blocks

8 Injured As Floor Collapses

NEW YORK (UP)—Eight workmen were injured today, two seriously, when the fifth floor collapsed in a building under construction just off Central Park for the Park-Bernet Art Galleries.

The cement floor gave way without warning with a clatter "like a truck dumping a load of coal," one of the injured workmen said.

Six of the injured were taken to the City Hospital on Welfare Island.

The other two were treated at the scene and released. Police said everyone in the building at the time had been accounted for.

TRAFFIC DETOURED

The new building on Madison Avenue between 76th and 77th Streets, was being constructed by the City Investing Co. in the shopping section a block off Central Park.

The cause of the collapse has not been determined.

Traffic was detoured two blocks around the building because of debris piled in the streets.

Starlight Theatre Opens Arena July 25

The Memorial Arena will be opened July 25. This was announced this afternoon by Ald. Ed. Williams, City Council's arena committee chairman, who said construction of the rink might not be fully completed by then.

"But the ceiling sheets will be fastened and the building will be available to the Theatre Foundation on that date," he said.

The Theatre Foundation is planning to present its Starlight Theatre shows from July 25 to 30 and from Aug. 15 to 20, at the arena.

Ald. Williams made his announcement following a lengthy meeting of the arena committee with Charles T. Hamilton, consulting engineer.

He said it was expected a start would be made early next week on fastening of the ceiling sheets with powder-fired bolts, each sheet being fixed with not less than five bolts.

Russia Orders Much British Equipment

LONDON (Reuter)—Russia has ordered $17,000,000 ($65,000,000) worth of British engineering equipment outside the list scheduled in the 1947 Anglo-Soviet trade agreement, Sir Greville Maginness told the Russo-British Chamber of Commerce here today.

The orders had been placed since the date of the 1947 agreement, he said.

Sir Greville, in his presidential address, added that the economies of the two countries were complementary and should provide a satisfactory basis for mutual trade on a larger scale than hitherto.

VANCOUVER (CP)—A four-alarm $1,000,000 fire early today leveled more than two blocks of waterfront property in the False Creek industrial district here.

Thirteen persons were injured, including 10 firemen, and many others escaped flames by minutes. Four of the injured are in hospital. The others were released after treatment.

A 43-mile-an-hour gale whipped the flames. They traveled a distance of a city block in five or six minutes.

A second fire in the highly industrialized Coal Harbor area, two miles to the west, was narrowly averted when a blazing fishboat threatened tinder-dry boathouses.

Like a torch, the craft, the 30-foot Rebeka, drifted down the harbor, threatened the fish fleet, and palatial cruisers and power boats at the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club off Stanley Park.

Finally, the blazing boat was beached. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The False Creek fire is believed to have started in the Bates Swamill, but the cause was not immediately determined. From there it spread through about a dozen mills, lumber yards, steel fabricating mills, fuel yards and smaller plants.

Among the top losers was the Arrow Kirk Fuels Company with losses estimated at $130,000. That company lost about 8,000 tons of coal.

Loss at the Excelsior Paper Company plant, 50 per cent destroyed was $100,000, and other plants placed losses at $50,000 to $50,000. Many others, however, had no immediate estimate.

Police and firemen rescued many persons from a houseboat fleet.

"It was like a forest fire," said a houseboatman. "The flames roared high above the water."

Crackling flames awakened many of the people in the boats. Dense smoke clouds limited visibility to 100 feet.

"It was the worst fire in Vancouver's waterfront history," said chief fire warden Archie King.

A decade ago loss was placed at $1,000,000 when flames swept C.P.R. Pier D, and in 1945 an explosion aboard the Ss. Greenhill Park cost another $1,000,000.

Two hours after the first alarm, which came at 2:18 a.m., today's fire was under control.

Chief MacDonald said about 500 firemen—every available man, including those off duty—fought the blaze. He said all equipment available was used.

Explosion Preceded Blaze

The fire consumed an area bounded by Main Street on the north and the southern tip of False Creek on the south. The area lies about two blocks south of the Canadian National Railway station.

Fire Crews From Two Provinces Fight 1,000-Acre Blaze

EDMONTON (CP)—Alberta and Saskatchewan fire fighters joined forces today in the battle against a serious forest fire raging over 1,000 acres in the Lac la Biche area of northern Alberta.

Provincial forestry officials are funneling more men and bulldozers into the area, about 150 miles northeast of Edmonton and near the Saskatchewan border. The Saskatchewan men entered the fight for the first time Tuesday night.

Overnight rain heightened the smoke-blackened fire fighters. Meanwhile, other fire fighting crews are engaging 13 more forest fires in widely separated areas in the northern half of the province. Three new blazes broke out overnight. Most of the fires are reported under control.

20,000 Die In South China Floods; Red Drive Halted

CANTON (AP)—The Communist southbound offensive was reported bogged down today by floods that have taken 20,000 lives in China's "rice bowl."

The death toll was reported by the Nationalists' official Central News Agency. It gave no source for the report, which was not confirmed elsewhere.

Central News said the flood victims were in the Hengyang area, about 270 air miles north of this refugee capital on the Canton-Hankow railway. Hengyang is in Hunan province, one of China's richest rice-producing areas.

Citizens Voting In Record Numbers

Indications from polling officers after the first four hours of voting are that a record number of electors will flock to the polls today to choose the 22nd Legislative Assembly of British Columbia.

The result of the polling in the four Greater Victoria constituencies is expected to be known well before midnight tonight.

Majority of the returning officers in the Victoria area reported that there had been steady streams of voters to the polls since they were opened at 8 this morning. But apparently there has been no rush.

The heaviest polling in the urban areas is expected after 4 this afternoon. The polls close at 8 tonight.

Voter Line-Ups On Mainland

From Vancouver it was reported that line-ups were at the polls when they opened. Other polling places there reported voting was proceeding at a faster tempo as the morning progressed.

Beer parlors, liquor stores and veterans' clubs throughout the province are closed until the polls close. Private clubs, however, are permitted to sell liquor during the voting period.

Polling officers themselves were loath to predict that the voting would be the heaviest on record, but the addition of almost 200,000 voters since the Oct. 25, 1945, provincial general election, and a prediction by provincial election officers that between 75 and 80 per cent of the electorate would vote, indicates that the polling will be the heaviest on record.

H. K. Bate, Esquimalt returning officer, reported 25 per cent of the Esquimalt electorate had voted by noon.

The weather throughout the province is favorable for a heavy poll. Bright skies were the rule on the coast but in some interior constituencies the skies were clouding and scattered showers are predicted later in the day.

Montana Boy, 2, Instantly Killed In Fall From Car

Two-and-one-half-year-old Kenneth Glen Landes of Glasgow, Montana, was killed shortly before noon today on East Saanich Road, Saanich police reported.

He is the son of Mrs. Madeleine N. Landes, who has been living here since May. Mr. Landes is with the Great Northern Railway in Montana and is at home.

Sgt. Jack Hamilton, who attended with Constable Robert Adrian, said the boy was one of four children in the back seat of a car driven by Robert V. Hing, Glen Lake. The boy fell out the right back door which had swung open.

Mr. Hing told police they were on a Saanich Peninsula tour and on nearing the Masonic Hall on East Saanich Road proceeding toward town, he felt a rush of wind from the back caused by the opened door. The boy struck his head on the pavement.

Denies Government Aiding Shipowners

OTTAWA (UP)—Transport officials described as ridiculous today the Canadian Seamen's Union statement that the federal government was paying millions of dollars to shipping companies during the current east coast shipping strike.

The charge was made in Toronto Tuesday night by Dever Ferguson, executive member of the left-wing union. He said the government paid out taxpayers' money to defray losses incurred by east coast shipping companies in the strike.

$50,000 Apartment Block Near Park

A $50,000 19-suite addition to an apartment building at 30 Douglas Street, opposite Beacon Hill Park, will be built immediately, it was learned today.

Permit for construction of the apartment block was issued by the city building inspector to J. N. Cote, 1262 Beach Drive.

The present building has been catering mainly to tourists and working people, it was stated.

The new construction will be two and a half stories high, will cover an area with a 41-foot frontage on Douglas Street, and extending back off the street 104 feet.

It will have a flat roof and will be finished in stucco.

Contractor will be H. Cote, 1011 Fairfield Road, son of the owner. Architect is D. C. Frame.

The apartment is one of the biggest the city has authorized in several months.

Western Ministers Send For Vishinsky

By R. H. SHACKFORD

PARIS (UP)—The U.S., British and French foreign ministers summoned Andrew Vishinsky of Russia to an extraordinary secret session late today to seek a settlement of the Berlin railroad strike.

The western ministers were impatient at Soviet delays. They were anxious to adjourn the Council of Foreign Ministers' conference tomorrow.

AT FOREIGN OFFICE

After canceling a regularly scheduled secret meeting at the Rose Marble Palace, the ministers met later at the French Foreign Office.

Conference sources said the major objective of the meeting was to get Russia to make a settlement of the Berlin rail strike possible. It was the first time the ministers had met at the Foreign Office.

Informed French sources said that as soon as the ministers met, they agreed to end the council meeting tomorrow. The report lacked official confirmation immediately.

Before the sudden turn of events, Russia had delayed for 24 hours a showdown meeting at which the western powers prepared to demand guarantees of right of access to Berlin.

The postponement coincided with a sudden surge of optimism in western circles. French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman told the French cabinet that a compromise working agreement on Germany was possible and an Austrian peace treaty might be agreed on by Sept. 1.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Schuman drafted their demand for right of access to Berlin at a private meeting this morning and had planned to submit it to Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky at a closed four-power meeting this afternoon.

A few minutes before the afternoon meeting was to start, however, Vishinsky asked Acheson, today's chairman, for a half-hour postponement.

Soon afterward, the French Foreign Office announced the meeting had been postponed until tomorrow at Vishinsky's request.

Eastern U.S. Heat Wave Kills 15 In Last Three Days

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mid-June heat wave and drought today threatened crops and fanned fears of serious forest fires in the northeastern parts of the United States.

Meanwhile, as the death toll in the New England heat belt mounted to 15 in the last three days, the flash floods and storms in North Texas took the lives of 11 persons.

In the Pacific Northwest, there also appeared danger of forest fires because of lack of rain for weeks. Fire hazards are reported in the forests of northwest Washington and northern Idaho as well as in the Cascade Mountains and the coastal forests of Washington and Oregon.

But over much of the middle west, showers and thunderstorms have brought needed moisture to farmers, brightening an already favorable crop outlook.

STATE OF EMERGENCY

Forest fire hazards are at the peak in New Jersey, now in the 24th day of a drought and with no rain forecast before late Thursday.

Soaking rains are needed to end the two weeks' drought danger to farms and forests in New York State but, the weather bureau says, no heavy falls appear imminent.

But faced with a government threat of suspensions and possible dismissal, thousands of administrative workers reported to their offices. By noon most government ministries were functioning, although more slowly than usual.

Electricity, gas and water service was normal. But there were no mail deliveries, no garbage collections, no street cleaning, and long-distance telephone and telegraph services were curtailed. The nationalized radio network was silent except for scattered news bulletins.

Police and Foreign Ministry employees were reported working 100 per cent normally.

U.N. World Atomic Control Discussion Temporarily Halted

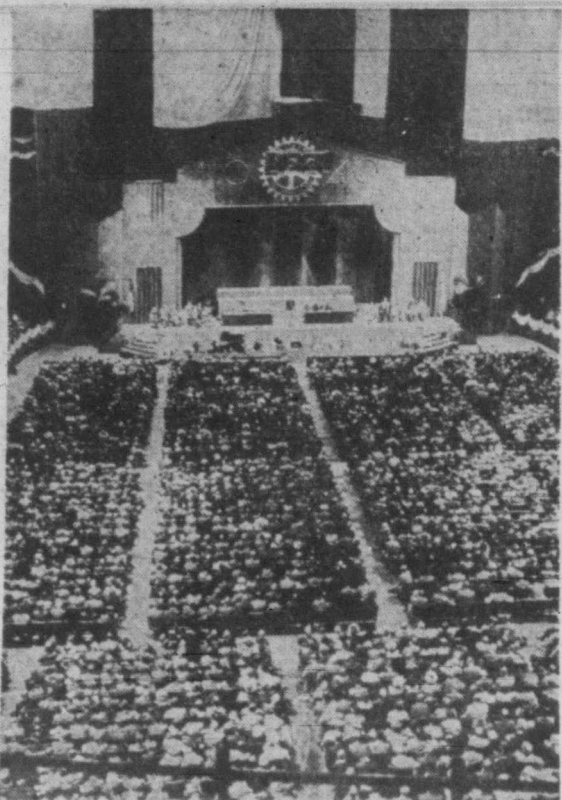

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—Delegates to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission today broke off discussion of world atomic control until the Big Five Powers and Canada decide there is a basis for agreement.

There was indication that the six powers would meet soon after the close of the present session of the Council of Foreign Ministers in Paris. Canada and the Big Five, Great Britain, the United States, Russia, France and China, are directed to report to the U.N. General Assembly in September.

The decision to conclude the current talks was made in the 11-member working committee of the commission. The working committee members are the same as those who sit in the main commission.

Argentina and Cuba jointly proposed shifting the problem to the Big Five and Canada. The vote for this was seven to two, with Egypt abstaining. Russia and the Soviet Ukraine opposed the move, claiming a six-power conference would not help solve the deadlock.

Earlier, the commission had voted seven to two, with two abstentions, to reject a Russian plan which had previously been voted down by the General Assembly. Egypt and Argentina did not vote on this resolution, presented by China. Only Russia and the Soviet Ukraine were for it.

Asbestos Workers To Continue Strike

THETFORD MINES, Que. (BUP)—Striking employees of the Asbestos Corp. in Thetford Mines, Que., voted overwhelmingly Tuesday night against accepting company settlement proposals.

The rejection vote, by 92 per cent of some 1,200 strikers, was announced by Jean Marchand, secretary-general of the striking Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor. It was the first secret poll taken by Asbestos Co. employees since walkouts started in the Eastern Townships four months ago.

As it turned out, the aircraft's trouble, which was in the starter mechanism, was later fixed and the Canadian Pacific Air Lines Dakota reached Prince George about 15 minutes after Mr. Coldwell had arrived by car.

Avonmouth dockers decided to support the Canadian strikers on the freighter Gulfside, which was then in port, in spite of appeals by their union leaders to keep out of the Canadian dispute.

Later the Canadian ship Montreal City became involved in the dispute with the dockers refusing to unload her because she was manned by a crew of the Seafarers' International Union.

The strike collapsed Tuesday when the strikers' leader, Joe Doody, said they were beaten by the government's refusal to allow troops to load the Montreal City and the owners' decision that she would remain idle until the strikers returned to work.

Manitoba School Trustee May Quit Over Girls' Dress

CHARLESWOOD, Man. (CP)—Fred Parsons of the Charleswood School Board Tuesday night announced his intention to resign following a dispute over wearing of slacks by girls attending a school in this municipality adjacent to Winnipeg.

The announcement came after heated discussion by electors with trustees over dismissal of Miss D. Sheldrake, a teacher who was stated to have deducted "points" against girls wearing slacks in class.

Trustee Parsons told a special meeting in the school a girl should be allowed to wear a halter and shorts to school in summer. "I'm not for this old-fashioned way of being prim and proper," he said. "I have worn shorts to church," he added. "Shame on you," an elector cried. "I was in the army," Mr. Parsons added.

Bill Criticized

MANCHESTER (CP)—The Manchester Guardian in an editorial today described the Citizenship bill now before the South African Parliament as "an unhappy sequel" to the recent visit to the United Kingdom of Prime Minister Daniel Malan of South Africa.

It said that from the Commonwealth standpoint its passage would be "serious." The bill establishes a five-year residence requirement, creates different classes of citizenship and leaves the Interior Minister with wide powers of discretion in determining the citizenship rights of the individual. The Guardian said the bill transformed British subjects from other parts of the Commonwealth "virtually into aliens."

Record Group Burial

WASHINGTON (AP)—The bodies of 248 men killed in a war-time ship explosion were brought to the Arlington Cemetery today for the largest group burial in the United States in years. The men died in the explosion of the transport Serpens, which was loading ammunition at Guadalcanal Jan. 29, 1945.

Weather

Weather synopsis and official forecast issued by the Dominion Public Weather Office at Vancouver at 9 a.m., June 15, and valid until midnight Thursday, June 16:

Northerly winds have brought cooler air to the interior of the province and this has led to the formation of the extensive decks of clouds. As a result temperatures will be from five to 10 degrees lower today than in the past few days. At Vancouver the winds funneled through the harbor and caused a local gale which reached a peak strength early this morning of 43 miles per hour. Elsewhere along the coast winds are ranging from 15 to 25 miles an hour. Southern coastal areas will remain clear for today and tomorrow but the remainder of the province will be cloudy.

Vancouver and vicinity, lower Fraser Valley, Strait of Georgia: Clear today and tomorrow. Northwest winds 25 decreasing to light northwest tonight. Little change in temperature. Low tonight and high tomorrow at Vancouver airport 45 and 68. Abbotsford 40 and 75. Nanaimo 48 and 68.

Wage War By Air On Grasshopper Plague In Western States

SHERIDAN, Wyo. (AP)—The big air war to head off a new grasshopper plague started today on the ranges of Wyoming and Montana.

From five bases, poison-laden planes were taking off on the first flights of a month-long aerial "bombing" campaign. The goal is to wipe out the grasshoppers in their favorite nesting grounds.

"We are just beginning," said

Leo Iverson of the United States Department of Agriculture.

For three weeks, parties of bug experts under Iverson's supervision rode over a 30,000,000-acre danger zone, picking out the worst grasshopper concentration places.

They pinpointed on county maps the areas where the 'hopper population was critical—where 30 to 200 could be counted in a square yard.

New poisons concealed in a bran the grasshoppers like will be spread over these areas by planes. These insecticides are so lethal only four-tenths of one ounce in five pounds of bran will cover an acre. The department expects a 99 per cent kill.

Polio Epidemic In U.S. Worst Of Year

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (BUP)—The first serious polio epidemic in the United States this year surged ahead with renewed intensity today.

Shannon Memorial Hospital at San Angelo, Texas, handled 65 cases, the most it has treated since the epidemic began several days ago in this west Texas area.

Twelve new cases were diagnosed this week, bringing the total for the year to 158. Eight deaths have been counted.

A PRIVILEGE AND DUTY

AT THIS LATE HOUR IT SHOULD BE unnecessary to recapitulate the case that has been presented for support of the Coalition platform. The choice before the electors today should be transparently clear.

It is not too late, however, to repeat one injunction that has been issued over and over again in these columns: It is the duty of every qualified person to vote.

The Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce and other agencies have been emphasizing the importance of using the franchise. That point cannot be underscored too heavily. Totalitarian countries enforce the vote. Democratic countries can lose their democracy if their citizens do not vote.

A definite responsibility rests on every qualified person today. It can be discharged only at the polling station.

UNDERSCORING A PROBLEM

CHIMNEYS STANDING STARKLY above the charred wood and ashes of the former home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leno, Mount Newton Crossroads, tell their own story of the misfortune which befell the Saanich berry-growers two days ago. The building and contents were lost because firemen, after apparently bringing the blaze under control, ran out of water and could not save the dwelling. This loss, coupled with others of a like nature on earlier occasions, lends cruel emphasis to a condition which exists in many parts of rural Saanich. An adequate supply of water is not available in cases of emergency.

The hard fact of the matter is that laying down a system sufficient to fill all needs is particularly expensive in the outlying regions. In some instances wells meet ordinary demands. But the nature of the soil in other sections renders this form of supply unsatisfactory, since no great underground reservoirs can be tapped in a large part of the district.

Under these circumstances, residents must know that they face specific risks from fire when they build away from urban settlement. It is true that they enjoy lower taxation in such districts, but the compensatory protection from fire loss is absent. If they are lucky, or if they have chosen their sites with care, the latter may not be an important factor, provided a natural source of water is near by. They must, of course, take into consideration their remoteness from fire-fighting equipment and the dangers of delay in bringing skilled personnel to the scene.

A movement is afoot now to establish hydrants on the Elk Lake-Patricia Bay water line. But that can afford only restricted facilities in the region. Moreover, last summer's decision of Brentwood voters, rejecting a water scheme, indicates an unwillingness to make the expenditure necessary to provide a relatively satisfactory system.

The problem in Saanich, therefore, unhappily illustrated by the Leno fire, serves to throw once more into clear relief the broader question of financing municipal entities which are divided into urban and rural areas. Quite patently, Inner Saanich's destiny resides in membership in the Greater Victoria community, preferably as an integrated partner of the larger municipal unit. The part of this community immediately contiguous to the city has developed to a point where it requires urban services. It is not logical that it should have to frame its policies on the basis of divided interests between agricultural and residential groups.

Moreover, when submissions are made to senior governments for assistance, it must be apparent that their strength will reside to a decisive extent on the population figures supporting them. Split up as they are now, those population figures are not impressive—the voice that makes the appeal is thin.

HOW MUCH 'FOR FREE'?

AS SCHOOL VACATION SEASON approaches, emphasis is once more being placed on the recreational opportunities a community should provide for its young people. And since the problems of leisure are not restricted solely to the time that children are released from their classrooms, discussions are also taking place on the means by which organized programs may be continued beyond the summer months to cover the entire year. That such considerations are claiming the attention of so many of our citizens indicates a sincere and constructive attitude here toward community welfare.

As we understand it, recreational activity under sponsorship seeks first to provide healthful outlets for young energies and to develop among the youth strong bodies and sound minds. At its lowest minimum, it keeps the youngsters off the streets, helps to direct them along socially acceptable paths, and curbs delinquency. The spirit of supervised recreation, we submit, is highly commendable.

There are, however, one or two pitfalls which those most enthusiastic about the modern trend are inclined to ignore. One lies in the course that is pursued to provide virtually everything for the recreational activity of young people without requiring from them a compensatory sense of responsibility for the opportunities offered to them. In an earlier age, on the other hand, juniors from 12 years upwards found pleasure in joining clubs to which they paid membership fees—often raised by performing Saturday morning chores. As members of a particular group they enjoyed its privileges only as long as they conformed to the rules, respected the club's property and made their contribution to the health of the organization. The compulsions residing in the rights of membership were factors that helped to develop an early sense of responsibility.

The picture in considerably changed from that time. A youngster wishing to play a specific game can frequently gain all the privileges from a sponsor, public or private, merely by request. In many instances he is inclined to trade his attitude toward a game from that of participation for the joy he gets from playing to one of performing only for a specific reward. He is too frequently allowed to get away with unbecoming conduct because his specialized athletic ability is an important ingredient of a team's advertising value to its sponsor.

This is just one development that has been noted through the recent now placed on sponsorship. Let us, by all means, provide facilities for our young people to enjoy life and cultivate useful interests. But in our efforts, let us see that we do not remove from them the incentive to help themselves, or inadvertently encourage the inclination to shirk responsibilities which are properly theirs.

SEWAGE AND A REMEDY

THE CITY MUST FACE THE FACT squarely that pollution of two of its most popular bathing beaches has rendered them a definite hazard. Gonzales Bay and Ross Bay, officials of the health department have disclosed, now carry the threat of typhoid and poliomyelitis. This news is not a complete surprise. Reports and recommendations last year predicted something of the kind.

Although the increasing density of population and greater volume of sewage being carried into the Strait from Clover Point have aggravated the condition, the basic difficulty is the same as that which has attracted expert opinion for some years. Prevailing currents and winds carry the discharge back to the beaches, sometimes in solid form.

The remedy appears to be the construction of big settling tanks and screening devices which could render the sewage into such fluid form that dilution in the sea would make it relatively innocuous. Such a project may be expensive. On the other hand, if health is in jeopardy, or the beaches become unfit for recreational activities in the summer, the city is in no position to forego the required expenditure. Health is a matter into which pinch-penny policies do not fit. The council has a plain duty before it. The condition has been exposed and the remedy has been indicated.

HOUSING LOANS

THE PRICE OF A NEW HOME TODAY, roughly speaking, is double that of a comparable new home 10 years ago. That is not a particularly unusual situation in view of the increased costs of construction. Nor should the figure demanded for such housing be considered without comparative evaluation of current income. Wages, including those paid directly and indirectly to labor in the construction trades, are far higher now than they were a decade ago.

These generalities are advanced as a preamble to discussion of complaints lodged by certain contractors in this city that present arrangements for home financing are hampering the construction and sale of homes in Greater Victoria. In other words, an individual in need of more adequate shelter, but without adequate savings to make a required down-payment, cannot borrow enough to pay for the premises he or she desires.

To this condition one contractor attributes the fact that although he has had two homes on the market for three months, both are still empty. Could it be that the builder in this case has priced his product out of the market? This is not a flippant inquiry. As we have previously noted, earnings today are, in general, well above prewar standards. A man, for instance, can afford to pay considerably more for his food than he did in 1939. But that is a current transaction. From the money he has in his pocket he takes the amount required to meet the bill. Buying housing on long-term agreements—virtually the only way the average man can undertake such a purchase—is a different matter entirely. The obligation he assumes when he enters such a contract is predicated not only on his financial standing at the moment, his ability to put down a substantial payment, but upon his undiminished earnings over a number of years in the future. What assurance could he give an orthodox lending agency, for instance, that the home for which he is prepared to pay $6,000 or $7,000 today will not revert to a real value of little more than half that much—the value, incidentally, which existed before the war?

The contractor who builds a home for a speculative market when the structure is completed, enters a gamble of short duration. Is he in a position to complain about a lending system which must take into consideration the vagaries of market conditions several years hence?

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH ALSOP From Washington

THIS SECRECY NONSENSE

THE ATOMIC energy investigation is at last beginning to reveal what all the shouting is about. It turns out that David E. Lilienthal is entangled in a difficult personal equation. He has made some borderline judgments. And he has not made sufficient concessions to the ostrich-minded national secrecy obsession that is now approaching the proportions of the famous panic after Orson Welles' Martian broadcast. These may seem inadequate reasons for charging a great public servant with incredible mismanagement, as Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper has charged Lilienthal. But since these are the causes for several weeks' suspension of all regular work by the entire higher staff of the most important industrial enterprise in the world, they deserve to be examined with some care.

IN BRIEF, the personal equation behind the present investigation begins with a relatively minor split between atomic energy Commissioner Lewis Strauss and his four colleagues, headed by Lilienthal. On almost all the issues now causing so much turmoil, Strauss has regularly voted with the rest of the commission. There has never been a divided vote on any matter of operations, management or program, including the controversial gas-pipeline to the Oak Ridge plant.

Equally, Commissioner Strauss has voted with his colleagues on major security issues, like the clearances of Doctors Condon and Graham, and the procedure for granting the commission's research fellowships. (These research fellows, by the way, are simply hired to produce useful ideas, as hens are fed for the eggs they lay. Worrying about their political affiliations is precisely like not feeding good egg-layers because they have radical views on the henhouse pecking order. But that is beside the point.)

COMMISSIONER STRAUSS has often disagreed with his colleagues, however, about what may be called foreign relations. The commission is constantly having to decide which radio-isotopes may be sent abroad, where they may be sent, how far the war-born Anglo-Canadian-American atomic energy partnership is to go, and so forth. All these decisions have been controversial. The most controversial are actually those which have not yet been discussed, such as the decision whether atomic weapons ought to be made in Britain, only a channel's breadth from Europe.

ON ALL THESE ISSUES, the other commissioners have tended toward a broad interpretation of the statute, while Commissioner Strauss has insisted on a strict interpretation. Possibly Lilienthal and his colleagues have made borderline judgments in this area. At any rate, through the commission's link with the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, these dissents of Strauss were bruited about.

In the poisonous little world of Washington, the Strauss dissents were then exaggerated into a full-scale war within the commission. Gossip began to give Strauss the role of the Atomic Energy Commission's only defender of "the American way," that Lilienthal's power-lobby enemies talk so much about.

MEANWHILE, ON THE Joint Congressional Committee, Senator Hickenlooper had invested more time learning about atomic energy than anyone else. He became the expert. Having become the expert, he inevitably became a backseat driver. And when his advice from the back seat was not always taken, he flew into the kind of fit of indignation that all front-seat drivers know only too well. Hence the present investigation.

This is all trivial enough. But what really makes the proceedings in the Senate caucus chamber look foolish, is one simple fact. In preparing the American rearmament program, the Joint Chiefs of Staff formally adopted 1952 as their planning date, by which this country would have to be prepared for the Soviet Union's building an atomic bomb. And this was done by the Joint Chiefs on the further assumption that atomic security would be maintained in America.

THERE ARE MANY experts who regard the Joint Chiefs' planning date as far too pessimistic. But even if the year to worry about is 1957, as the British authorities think, there is plainly no safety whatever in mere secrecy, however hysterically enforced. Plainly, the only safety now lies in national strength and wise national policy. That bleak truth puts those who yell loudest about "secrecy" and the danger from "subversives" in a pretty false position. For these same men are generally the advocates of feeble and foolish foreign and defense policies. And in exchange for a binding assurance of American feebleness and folly, the Politburo would undoubtedly give every secret in all the Atomic Energy Commission's triple-locked and guarded files.

Wings Over Washington

A French View Of The Conference

By RAYMOND HENRY

WITHOUT wishing to prophesy the result of the Foreign Ministers' Conference, it can nevertheless be said that the fact of renewing contact is a big step forward. The revival of Four-Power conversations does not entirely stop the rot which has crept into relations between the east and west, but at least it will be prevented from spreading while the ministers decide whether or not it can be overcome.

HOPEFUL TALKS

"While there's life there's hope" the saying runs. It can also be claimed, "While there are talks there is hope." Let us look at the present situation. Since the breakdown of the London meeting in December 1947, Russia and the western democracies have each been obliged to follow in their respective zones an independent program. The western allies, on their side, reached agreement among themselves on the principles for the rehabilitation of Germany; but the Russians, who had always foreseen political unity as the necessary precursor of economic unity, were able to act only on the basis of theory. And it seems today that the U.S.S.R. may desire not only to negotiate but to reach agreement. There is no doubt that if Russia is willing to play her part in a compromise on the German problem is possible; if goodwill is there, a compromise is always possible; the proof of this statement lies in another aspect of the German problem. Divergences of opinion between the three western powers seemed at times insurmountable, and yet largely on account of the spirit of conciliation shown by France—a satisfactory agreement was finally reached in Washington.

PAVED THE WAY

Would it be exaggerating to say that these French concessions have done more than permit three-power agreement—that they have even paved the way for eventual agreement between the four? If the western powers had been unable to agree and thus unable to present a united front at the coming talks, it is more than likely that the U.S.S.R. would have attempted to capitalize this weakness. As it is, Russia has found herself confronting a strong, united group; she has had to stop and think, to envisage the possibility of negotiation and possibly of agreement.

In the negotiations the western powers have the undoubted advantage that they have come to the conference table with a program already completed. In the political field they can offer Germany a constitutional organization for government under such control as is necessary until the Peace Treaty has been signed. In the economic field, they have set up the International Authority of the Ruhr and the Military Office of Security, organizations which will study and reconcile the needs of German economy side by side with the questions of reparations and security. In the face of these achievements the Russians are but lightly equipped; but all they have to do is to accept an extension over the whole of Germany of a system which can easily become a four-power system.

For her part France will neglect no opportunity to reconcile the two view points. She is at the conference table secure in the confidence of her solidarity with Washington and London, and desirous also of extending this understanding and agreement to Moscow.

ESSENTIAL SECURITY

But she will not go back on what she considers the essential problems of Germany of tomorrow—divided or whole; security based on military guarantees, political guarantees ensuring the democratic nature of German institutions and a federal regime. In fact, the position as agreed upon at Washington—nothing else; it is thus that the French attitude might be summed up in the four-power discussions.

Wholesome Food—Deadly Poison

By DANIEL McLELLAN, M.D., Vancouver

MANY people do not understand the difference between socialization and socialism. There is as great a difference between socialization within the framework of democracy and socialism as there is between mushrooms and toad-stools. They look so much alike as to be mistaken for one another, but one is good wholesome food, the other a deadly poison.

GREATEST BULWARK

Every advance in social legislation is hailed by the Socialists and Communists as a step towards socialism or eventual communism, while the Conservatives and Liberal camps, shudder at the thought of approaching Socialism.

The truth is that sensible socialization within the framework of democracy is the greatest bulwark against socialism.

We receive the benefits of socialization and still retain our individual liberty. We socialize what should be socialized, consolidating step by step, always jealously guarding our individual freedom of action. It is the banding together of free men in a common cause for the mutual benefit of all. The Conservative-minded think we go too fast; the C.C.F'er thinks we go too slow, but the middle course is the best.

For example: Our postal service is socialized. Instead of each one hiring his own courier, you can send a letter to Chilliwack, Washington, or London for 4 cents, with no interference with your personal freedom. You can say what you like in your letter, provided you do not use the mails to defraud.

Our police system is socialized, as is our fire department and our water supply. Instead of each one having his old red pump, with the risk of contaminated water, we obtain our pure water from the lakes in the mountains. You can take a bath as often as you like; you can drink all the water you want; you can water your lawn to your heart's content. But, if the water gets low, in the interests of all, you are restricted to certain hours of sprinkling.

UNAVOIDABLE

"Ah," but the Socialist will say, "that is interfering with your personal freedom." Of course it is. The only one with a near approach to complete freedom is the hermit, and even he hasn't got it. Your freedom does not allow you to run against the red light, but you may live longer to enjoy it.

Even democracy can be run into the ground, as in that great country to the south of us, where they elect their judges and in some places even chiefs of police, and where a thug in control of votes can say to a judge: "Be a good boy, or lose your job at next election."

While there may be a difference in method, there is no fundamental difference between communism and socialism. The Communist is simply a left-wing Socialist; the Socialist, a pink Communist. Karl Marx is the patron saint of both. Members of the same family, they quarrel among themselves and kick one another out of the house. The Socialists are at present trying to outbid the Communists—or trying to—but it is a Frankenstein they cannot control.

The C.C.F'er is under the delusion that under socialism he would obtain all the benefits of socialization and still retain all the freedom, rights and privileges he now enjoys under democracy. But he wouldn't. Every time a Communist gets into a jam, he hollers loudly for his rights—under democracy—rights which he would not have under communism. Under communism he would have only one right, to do as he was told without question.

NOT WANTED

Out-and-out socialism or communism, without a dictator, is an utter impossibility, whether that dictator be one man or a group of men. Among freedom-loving Canadians it can have no place whatever.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

FOR a change we apparently are about to witness a wide-open fight in the eastern-European Communist bloc to settle a family quarrel which finally has become too serious to be kept under cover.

Russia is reliably reported about to take heavy direct action against politically-rebellious Yugoslavia, headed by tough and independent Marshal Tito. Moscow and its other satellite states are reportedly ready to launch a great offensive against Yugoslavia to inflict "economic strangulation" on that premier Balkan state.

This drastic program is said to have been laid down at a meeting of the "Cominform" (successor to the Comintern, or general staff for world revolution) which has been meeting in Poland. July 1 is the date said to have been fixed for the opening of the grand offensive.

The trouble between Moscow and Yugoslavia is that this big Balkan state is fiercely nationalistic and Tito epitomizes this spirit. That, of course, contradicts the Communist code, which maintains that sovereignty rests in Moscow. Belgrade has refused to surrender her sovereignty.

TITO IN HOT WATER

Yugoslavia was expelled from the Cominform a year ago, after her government was accused of a policy hateful to Russia and of other deviations from Marxist-Leninist theory. Tito himself was roundly castigated.

Now the strategy of the economic offensive against Yugoslavia is to cut that country off from all trade with Russia and the satellite countries of eastern Europe. If such a boycott could be made airtight, and if Yugoslavia could find no alternative sources of supply in the western world, it obviously would be a catastrophe for the country. The state is strong in agricultural products, but is weak industrially and thus is very far from self-sufficient.

All this being so, Tito's natural move will be to turn to the western democracies for supplies. Will he get them, or will the democracies merely chortle and say: "You made your bed, now lie on it?"

As the signs read, the western countries are likely to welcome the chance to deal with Tito. By so doing they might kill two birds with one stone—that is, they would establish a useful trade which western Europe needs, and this would tend to widen the breach between Moscow and Belgrade.

POOR ADVERTISEMENT

Edmonton Journal
One of the most unfortunate features of the current shipping strike is the way it has spread into foreign ports, wherever Canadian ships are tied up.

The most grotesque of these incidents occurred when the Cuban Navy had to be called out to settle a row aboard a Canadian freighter off the coast of that island.

What an advertisement for our merchant marine in the eyes of potential customers!

NOTE ON INITIATIVE

Ottawa Journal
During the war R.C.A.F. trainees in bombing practice dropped thousands of bombs on Shirley's Bay, some 12 miles from Ottawa.

Mel and Ray McIntosh, brothers who were fishermen, decided it might be a good idea to fish those bombs from the bottom of the bay, sell them as scrap metal.

They have been doing it: retrieving the bombs with a contrivance of their own making, selling them to a Kingston refining company. Last week they recovered $7,000 worth.

A fine example of enterprise and initiative.

ANTIQUES

Windsor Star

In an age when progress is the be-all and end-all of every phase of life, it's interesting to note that the antique business is so good dealers are afraid they're going to run out of old things to sell.

The gracious beauty of many old pieces is reason enough for their being bought, and yet it isn't just their beauty that sells them. It's the feeling they give of continuing, of lasting, in a day of rocket-ships that now you see, now you don't.

Could be there's a little bit of the conservative in all of us.

Acrobatic Dancer Advances To Second-Half Finals Of Quest

Theatre-goers at the Odeon Theatre learned Tuesday night that the human body is capable of doing some amazing twists and turns—but it is unlikely many of them will try the stunts of 13-year-old Diane Tippett.

The young acrobatic dancer took top honors over four other contestants in the second round of the second half of Roy Gordon's Daily Times Talent Quest.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Tippett, 1043 Clare Street, Diane, who is in grade seven at Margaret Jenkins School, received a tremendous ovation from the packed theatre both when she completed her difficult acrobatic manoeuvres and when Mr. Gordon held his hand over her head during the judging of the contestants by audience applause.

NO DOUBT

There was no doubt from the spontaneous response of those in the theatre who was the winner.

Miss Tippett will now appear in the second half finals on the Odeon stage July 5, and winner from the four contestants that night will meet Johnny Page, "mammy" singer who took first half laurels, in the finals a week later.

Winner of the Times Talent Quest will get a free trip to Hollywood, and may appear in Hollywood Bowl in a talent show.

Tuesday night's performance opened with a tap dance by the Swingettes from Florence Clough's Dancing Studio—Audrey Latham, Doreen Pearson, Doreen Bull, Shirley Woodward and Judy Mason. The young dancers were one of the guest acts on the show.

Eleven-year-old Doreen Warren, a grade five student at Gordon Head School, was the first contestant to appear. She was well-received for her singing of "The Alphabet Song." Doreen is also a dancer, but confined her act to singing Tuesday night.

Receiving a nice hand at various stages of her performance was Marlene Vance, whose difficult skipping rope tap prompted a suggestion from emcee Gordon that some of the ladies in the audience could try it for reducing!

Marlene is 14 years old, a grade nine student at Central Junior High School, and she plans to keep up her dancing—a good idea, as her act showed a lot of promise.

CALLED FROM AUDIENCE

Gerald James had to be called from the audience to perform—but when he got to the front of the Odeon Theatre the crowd found it had a real entertainer present. The young man really had the theatre jumping with his piano boogie selection.

Final contestant of the night was Frank Rodwell, who displayed amazing balance and alacrity in a Russian dance. The 17-year-old grade 10 student who attends Mount View High School, had the audience gasping with his leaps and nimble footwork.

Also on the entertaining program were three guest artists—previous performers on the Daily Times Talent Quest who showed so much talent that Roy Gordon brought them back for Victorians to see again.

Gary Smele, 10, displayed a keen stage sense and good timing as he kept the crowd applauding to his renditions of "Everywhere I Go," "Take Me Out To The Ball Game," and "Mammy."

Last week's runner-up, pretty Beverly Forbes of Nanaimo, who is attending Normal School here, and who Roy Gordon says he is keeping in mind for a radio auditions in the heart of Harlem.

Advertising Features B.C. Travel

Unusual interest has been aroused by the quiz-type series of advertisements by Home Oil Distributors Ltd. which are currently appearing in this paper. Designed to promote vacationing and travel in British Columbia by British Columbians, each advertisement features an outstanding beauty spot in the province and asks "Can you place this B.C. picture?"

Readers are directed to Home Gas dealers for the answer, if they are stumped.

The advertisement also offers a free "Tour Guide" which is a unique wheel. By simply turning the wheel to any desired area in British Columbia, all information on that place is available at a glance.

This effort supplements the work of the Provincial Travel Bureau and various Tourist Associations throughout the province and is undertaken as a public service by this British Columbian company.

Thirteen-year-old Diane Tippett shows one of the many difficult acrobatic manoeuvres she performed on the stage of the Odeon Theatre Tuesday night when she won the second round of the second half of Roy Gordon's Daily Times Talent Quest. Diane has been dancing for four years and intends to keep it up.

Young Victorians who entertained fellow-citizens at the Odeon Theatre Tuesday night showed that there is lots of talent in the city—but much of it still needs to be uncovered. Left to right are: Gary Smele, who was a guest singer; Doreen Warren, singer; Frank Rodwell, dancer, and Marlene Vance, who did a skipping-rope-tap dance.

could hardly have done better—sang "Always."

Bernard "Mickey" Brown, of H.M.C.S. Naden, who always gets a terrific response when he walks on the stage even before the crowd has heard him perform—thanks to his shipmates—indicated he will be a real threat in the second half finals July 5 when he sang, accompanying himself on the guitar, "Oh, How She Could Yodel," then returned for an encore, "Five Feet Two."

TACOMA TALENT

But it took a pair of 13-year-old Tacoma youngsters to steal the spotlight of the evening.

Roy Gordon is running a similar talent quest in the Puget Sound City and was so impressed with the performance of Marlene Berger and Michael Tibbetts that he wanted to show them off here.

Marlene started off with a solo tap tango, then, accompanied by Mr. Gordon on the piano, gave a display of rapid-fire tap dancing.

She then teamed with Michael Tibbetts for a jitterbug tap dance which proved a real show-stopper.

Gardiner Compares Respective Plans Of Liberals, Tories

BIGGAR, Sask. (CP)—Agricultural Minister Gardiner Monday night carried his campaign into the Rosetown-Biggar federal constituency, where M. J. Coldwell, national C.C.F. leader, and Alvin Hamilton, Progressive Conservative organizer, are seeking election on June 27 against Duff Noble, Liberal candidate.

It was fitting, said Mr. Gardiner, to lay bare the real differences between the major parties in the Rosetown-Biggar riding. These differences he listed as the raising of revenue, the provision of purchasing power and marketing problems, dealing at some length with each item.

Mr. Gardiner said "four things are clear":

1. The Liberals have a practical method of taking undue profits from corporations without destroying their initiative. The Conservatives have not, he said.

2. The Liberals have a practical method of increasing purchasing power through social services without putting every employee under the state. The Conservatives have not, Mr. Gardiner said.

3. The Liberal plans for marketing would close the grain exchange and take all speculation out of grain marketing. The Conservative plans, he claimed, would keep the grain exchange open for all other grains and reopen it for wheat, thus restoring speculation.

4. Any virtue to be found in the extension of an opportunity to trade through provincial boards set up in accordance with Liberal principles is already provided for in the Agricultural Products Marketing Act of 1949.

Duncan City Council Plans Road Extension

DUNCAN—City council will make an offer to Mrs. B. P. Davies for property on Trunk Road, with a view to road extension.

It's Bouquets And Bombs For Franco

Generalissimo Francisco Franco is shown as he rose to make a speech in answer to a welcome given him at a dinner at the municipal hall in Barcelona, Spain. The visiting ruler was accompanied to Barcelona for a two-week visit by his wife and daughter, and members of his cabinet. He was hailed by speeches and bouquets, and coincidentally, at least, by two bombs which exploded in the vicinity. (S.N.S. Photo)

C.C.F. Leader Says C.P.R. Influences Federal Government

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—Contending the Canadian Pacific Railway has for generations been influencing the federal government, M. J. Coldwell, national C.C.F. leader, said Tuesday night that as a result there is no real competition between the C.P.R. and C.N.R.

In a political campaign address in this town, Mr. Coldwell said there is evidence of this influence in the freight rate situation in the Rockies. Despite the fact that it cost the C.P.R. more to move freight across the mountains, the rates of the privately owned corporation were the same as for the government-operated C.N.R.

This lack of competition was unfair to the people of Canada because it provided no incentive for giving the people better service. It permitted the railroads to stand together in their requests for increased freight rates in the face of demands from seven provinces for elimination of the freight rate discrimination.

Howe Says Canada's Trade Twice That Of U.S. Per Head

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man. (CP)—Canada's trade is twice that of the United States per capita and there is nothing to indicate the Dominion is losing it, Trade Minister Howe said Tuesday night.

"We have sold everything we have to sell, our wheat crop, coarse grains. There is a surplus of flax, more than the equivalent of the crop of Canada, but we are not worrying particularly about that," Mr. Howe said in addressing a political meeting here.

The minister said all opposition parties in the 1945 general election predicted a depression and unemployment. However, Canada now had more persons employed than ever before in her history.

The minister termed "groundless" charges made in Port Arthur last week by Progressive Leader George Drew regarding the Canadair Company and the Electric Boat Company.

Mr. Howe said the Electric Boat Company had been investigated and found to be responsible and reliable.

Victoria Club for the Hard of Hearing will meet this evening. Moving pictures will be shown at 8.15 in the clubrooms.

Bride's Uncle Sends Heather From Scotland For Bouquet

Sprays of white heather sent from Scotland by the bride's uncle were arranged with red roses, lily of the valley and swainsons, in the crescent bouquet carried by Miss Shirley Margaret Colyer, when she exchanged vows with William Charles Leech, last Saturday evening.

Baskets of roses were placed in Centennial United Church for the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Colyer, 549 David Street, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leech, 3166 Qu'Appelle Street.

Rev. W. R. Ashford read the nuptial service, and while the couple signed the register, Mrs. N. Hunt sang "Because," accompanied at the organ by Miss Hilda Kirkby.

The ivory satin bridal gown was made with voluminous skirt slightly en train, the front flounced with satin roses to reveal a ruffled net underskirt. The sheer net yoke, creating an off-shoulder effect, was enriched with satin petals, and the basque bodice, finished with lily point sleeves.

Fine illusion net misted beyond the bride's pearl tulle to floor-length.

Honor matron for her brother's bride, was Mrs. Muriel Fredin, whose gown of pale blue embroidered organza was complemented with matching headress and mitts.

Miss Norma Colyer was bridesmaid for her sister. Her pale pink nylon net frock was posed over a taffeta underskirt, and she wore pale pink mitts and floral headress. Both carried roses and stephanotis in their bouquets.

Ross Ramsay was best man. Ushers were Alex Lister and Robert Harmon.

Jack Lowe, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast at a reception held in Loughheed's banquet hall. The three-tier cake was encircled in white lace and topped with Talisman roses. Mrs. Colyer, whose frock of turquoise crepe was contrasted with navy and white accessories, and Mrs. Leech, dressed in rose crepe with grey accessories, assisted in welcoming guests.

For the wedding trip to Vancouver and Seattle, the bride changed to a grey corded pin-stripe suit, cherry red and white accessories and gardenia en corsage.

Cwacs Hold First Peacetime Gathering

TORONTO (CP) — Barracks life with its queues, parades, medicals and rigid discipline wasn't so bad after all. So decided many former members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at their first large peacetime reunion here during last week-end.

Some 1,100 former army women gathered from across the Dominion and a large number of them—perhaps with the years mellowing their memories—said their days in uniform were the happiest of their lives.

Helene Machnee, formerly of Edmonton and now of Ottawa, thinks former service girls would race each other to recruiting stations if the needs arose again.

Many of the girls wore their khaki uniforms to the reunion, but others admitted the only parts of their uniform which still fitted were the hat and gloves. Those who couldn't squeeze into the narrow shirts were issued brown berets bearing the C.W.A.C. crest.

But they haven't lost their erect posture or forgotten how to march. On the way to church parade yesterday, Maj.-Gen. E. G. Weeks, Adjutant General, took the march-past salute on City Hall steps. Later he said he was pleased with the smartness of the ranks.

Plan Picnic—Members of the Alpha Group of Metropolitan Women's Auxiliary made plans for a picnic in the garden of Mrs. L. J. Adams, 3106 Washington Street, for July 7, when they met recently with Mrs. William McCulloch presiding. Afternoon tea was served by hostesses.

Annual Musicale To Feature Many Well-Known Artists

In aid of the Bay Wigley Scholarship, one of the main projects of the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club, a musicale will be held in the spacious lounge at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel, Friday evening, commencing at 8.15 o'clock.

The varied and interesting program, arranged by Mrs. J. Ingram Smith will include as guest artists, Mrs. Allan Paver, contralto; Miss Madonna McCabe, operatic soprano; Pierre J. Timp, tenor, and Miss Vivian Trimble and Miss Muriel Trimble, vocal duets.

Two of Victoria's younger pianists, Miss Sheila Bates and Miss Joan Creighton, who won distinction in the recent music examinations, will be heard in solo groups. Instrumental trios will be presented by Miss Jacqueline Johnston, Miss Ann Robertson, violinists, with Miss Mary Cameron at the piano, and Terrence Shaw will be heard in a solo violin group. Accompanists will be Mrs. Pierre Timp, Mrs. Helen McVie, Miss Marion Gibbs and J. Ingram Smith.

Following the recital a coffee party will be held in the lower lounge. Invited to preside at the urns are Miss Mabel Cameron, chairman of the Bay Wigley Scholarship committee, and Miss Gertrude Finch Page, a personal friend of the late Miss Wigley.

Guests will be welcomed by Mrs. Norma MacDonald and Miss Frances Jordan of the Oak Bay Beach Hotel, assisted by Miss Marjorie Press, the club's president.

Ushering will be Mrs. M. Nicholls.

Today's Recipe

FROZEN ORANGE FLUFF PUDDING

Three cups rice krispies, ½ cup melted butter or margarine, ¼ cup sugar.

One and one-half cup orange juice, canned or fresh, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1½ cups marshmallow cream, 1 cup whipping cream.

Crush rice cereal into fine crumbs; mix with butter and sugar; reserve two tablespoons of mixture. Press remaining crumbs evenly and firmly in bottom of freezing tray, 10½x 8x1½ inches. Heat orange juice, sugar and salt to boiling point; add gelatin which has been softened in cold water; stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice, and cool. As soon as mixture is thickened, fold in marshmallow cream. Freeze until firm. Before serving, pile stiffly whipped cream on top and sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Yield: eight servings. (2½x4 inches).

Sewage Trouble Remedy Ordered

Four Richmond Avenue homeowners in the vicinity of the University School are to be ordered by Saanich Council to take measures to stop effluent from their septic tanks running into the ditch and thence onto school property.

This was the decision of Saanich Council meeting Tuesday night when Councillor William E. Bond, Ward One, called for action on the complaint.

H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, said that the trouble was not due to faulty septic tanks, but that it was merely a question of disposal of the effluent. He thought the people should be told to keep the effluent on their own grounds rather than let it run into the ditch.

To Call Bids For Saanich Road Work

H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, told Saanich Council at a special meeting Tuesday night that he would call for tenders for construction work entailed in the $270,000 road improvement and reconstruction by-law next Monday. Tenders sent in will be opened in two weeks' time.

The money by-law approved by ratepayers recently calls for $35,000 expenditure in each of the seven wards, chiefly deals with interward arteries, bus routes to get priority treatment.

Cosmopolitan Club will meet Thursday at 6.15 in Terry's dining-room.

OUT-OF-BOUNDS—These signs, warning swimmers the water is polluted and unsafe for bathing, are being erected at Ross Bay and Foul Bay near the Clover Point sewer outlet. City officials who say the water is dangerous are studying methods of correcting the problem which has been confronting them for years, but which is particularly bad this year because the sewer is running full almost continually with the larger population.

Says Hospital Plan Would Save Saanich $6,000 A Year

Albert I. Smith, claims officer of the B.C. hospital insurance service, explained to Saanich Council Tuesday night a plan that would realize a saving in the neighborhood of $6,000 a year in its hospital bill.

Council took no immediate action on the matter, being cautioned by Reeve E. C. Warren to give it careful consideration before arriving at a decision.

Under the system now in operation Saanich pays 70 cents a day for each Saanich patient that goes to hospital in British Columbia, a cost that would work out to a total of $34,000 for this year.

Mr. Smith said that under an alternative plan based on Saanich's 1947 figure of 26,000 residents, the average length of stay per patient in hospital and the number of patients per 1,000 admitted, the municipality could dispose of the matter by paying a flat sum of $27,846 for 1949.

The alternative plan, he said, would mean Saanich would pay an estimated $5.95 per patient instead of the $7.52 estimate they now pay. The claims officer said the saving that would be realized would come from a reduction in administration costs. "We are not trying to tie you down to anything. All those who enter this plan do so voluntarily. There is no compulsion. We are prepared to make an adjustment at the end of each calendar year," said Mr. Smith.

He said that about 35 per cent of municipalities in the province have entered the alternative plan.

Councillor William E. Bond of Ward One was of the opinion the council was being offered a "good thing." He did not see how the council could lose. It was here, however, that Reeve Warren warned against "rushing into anything" until the matter has been thoroughly studied.

Says Deal On Taxes With Drew Would Hit Western Provinces

MINNEDOSA, Man. (CP)—Justice Minister Garson Tuesday night predicted a "raw deal" for the provinces if provincial governments tried to negotiate a renewal of their taxation agreements with a federal government headed by George Drew.

In a strong attack against the Progressive Conservative national leader, Mr. Garson said Mr. Drew had been making "sanctimonious speeches about his desire to co-operate" in bringing about financial agreements between federal and provincial governments and then "balking when we got down to brass tacks."

The justice minister spent a large portion of his campaign address reviewing a speech made by Mr. Drew in the same hall here June 6 in which the Progressive Conservative leader had made charges of "lies" against him.

Repeating the charges, Mr. Garson said Mr. Drew, when Premier of Ontario, could have saved valuable time and much expense if he had brought forward his own proposals at the start of the Dominion-Provincial Conference instead of waiting nine months before doing so.

He explained events leading up to the conferences and praised the Liberal government for following the suggestions laid out in the Rowell-Sirois report. He said that only the Liberal government could assure the people of renewed tax agreements with the provinces.

Dr. Bryant Named To C.M.A. Executive

SASKATOON (CP)—Dr. Norman H. Gosse of Halifax was named president-elect of the Canadian Medical Association for 1950 at a meeting of the general council Tuesday. He will succeed Dr. J. F. C. Anderson of Saskatoon.

The executive committee of provincial representatives to serve with Dr. Anderson and the re-elected officers include: Dr. F. M. Bryant, Victoria; Dr. Harold Orr, Edmonton; Dr. E. A. McCusker, Regina, and Dr. R. W. Richardson, Winnipeg.

Most Beautiful Blonde

Ruth Thomas, 22, of New York City, is the winner of a movie company's "Most Beautiful Blonde" contest over 4,000 entrants from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Her prizes include an air trip to Havana and a complete wardrobe. She is now appearing in a Broadway musical.

Liberals Social-Minded Not Socialist—St. Laurent

MONTREAL (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent told election campaign audiences in Montreal Tuesday night the Liberal government is "not Socialist, but social-minded."

He spent the evening traveling about the metropolis and speaking to crowds at the Atwater Market in the St. Henri District, St. Stanislas School in Outremont and at east-end St. Sulpice School.

In his address at the Atwater Market hall, the Prime Minister said the Progressive Conservatives evidently accuse the Liberal government of socialism on the basis of its social legislation.

Mr. St. Laurent, whose half-hour speech was broadcast over a CBC French network, said:

"You all know we are opposed to, state socialism. What then can the Conservatives be driving at when they talk of socialism?"

"I don't see what it can be except our social laws, which assure, from one ocean to the other, a just and fair distribution of our national wealth."

"I know the Tories say they are not opposed to the social measures we have adopted. These measures are so good, they are so popular, that the Opposition does not dare express its real views."

"But," said the Prime Minister, "it is those laws they evidently have in mind when they talk of the supposed socialism of the Liberals."

Mr. St. Laurent said the Liberal Party stood for personal freedom and private enterprise and was opposed to any form of government seeking to place Canadian economy under the complete control of the state.

He said the Liberals were equally opposed to "reactionary torism."

The Prime Minister said that in a speech reported in newspaper La Presse May 28, Progressive Conservative leader George Drew was quoted as having said that Liberals and the C.C.F. Party supported each other in certain counties.

He challenged Mr. Drew to name one such county.

UNFOUNDED STATEMENT
In the same speech, he said, the Progressive Conservative leader was reported as having said the Liberals sought socialization not only of large enterprises and monopolies but of a number of small industries, farms and forest resources.

Mr. St. Laurent said the

The first colonization of Puerto Rico by the Spaniards was in 1508.

Economic Union Of West Europe Seen As Outgrowth Of New Trends

QUEBEC (CP)—Regional unions now forming will lead towards the economic union of all western Europe, Edmond Giscard d'Estaing told today's plenary session of the International Chamber of Commerce.

M. d'Estaing, chairman of the French national committee of the I.C.C., led a discussion of "regional unions and the world economy."

He cited five groups of countries which are coming together: Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, known as Benelux; the Union of South Africa with Southern Rhodesia; Norway with Sweden and Denmark; Colombia with Ecuador, Panama and Venezuela; France with Italy.

"We are aware also of the significant effort represented by the organization for European Economic Co-operation (O.E.E.C.) which now groups 19 nations."

"Finally, we must mention the trend towards European union born of a powerful movement of public opinion."

"The last stage of the evolution will be the economic union of western Europe, which will restore to the old countries of the west the broad framework they need for the full development of their enterprise, initiative and intelligence that remain as vigorous today as ever before."

Other speakers included G. H. Crone, the Netherlands; Hon. John S. MacLay, M.P., of Britain, and S. L. Mehrotra of India.

TIME NEEDED

In general they agreed with M. d'Estaing on the desirability of regional unions, but with some differences of views on procedures.

But Mr. Crone did not agree with speed. "There is," he said, "no short cut to economic union; the impediments must be removed one by one."

Mr. MacLay commented that immediate spectacular results would require such a high degree of governmental intervention and control as might easily become a permanent feature of economic life. "Targets and some forward planning are essential if any progress is to be made."

Vengeance Marriage Exciting Film Fare

One of the most outrageous sister-brother combinations ever to scandalize society—Lucretia and Cesare Borgia—is now shock audiences at the Capitol Theatre where Paramount's melodrama based on their activities, "Bride of Vengeance," arrived today.

The title role, that of Lucretia Borgia, is portrayed by Paulette Goddard, who is co-starred with John Lund and MacDonald Carey, the latter appearing as her malevolent brother.

So asserts Preston Foster, who is co-starred with Belita in "The Hunted," Allied Artists production currently at the Plaza Theatre.

'Criss Cross' Opens On Odeon Screen

"Criss Cross," the Universal-International picture which opened today at the Odeon Theatre, brings together in an underworld triangle Burt Lancaster, Yvonne De Carlo and Dan Duryea. The story deals with the violent rivalry between hoodlums, played by Duryea, and an ex-husband, played by Lancaster, for the love of Miss De Carlo.

The locale is Los Angeles' old downtown quarters. Lancaster and Director Robert Siodmak are teamed for the first time since "The Killers," the star's initial picture.

Bing Dubbed Knight In Movie At Atlas

Bing Crosby, who has perhaps gathered more honors and titles as America's favorite singing star than any other personality in the entertainment world, gets himself dubbed a knight in his new Paramount production of Mark Twain's beloved classic, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court." Bing is co-starred in the romantic comedy, which opened today at the Atlas Theatre, with lovely Rhoda Fleming.

RIO THEATRE

Moviegoers of a decade ago, who remember the shock and horror caused by the revelations in the Hollywood film, "Wild Boys of the Road," and the subsequent public response to the problem of the homeless adolescents then roaming the country, will find an interesting parallel in the new Italian-made film, "Shoe-Shine," which is now at the Rio Theatre.

ROYAL THEATRE

Dual romances, nearly 50 years ago, motivate "Enchantment," Samuel Goldwyn's new starring vehicle for David Niven, Teresa Wright, Evelyn Keyes and Farley Granger, which is now being shown at the Royal Theatre.

With an old London home as the setting for both affairs, the RKO Radio release contrasts the romance of a young British officer and a pretty orphan at the turn of the century with the modern love story of an American girl and a British pilot.

CAGEY PLAY MAKES THIS DOUBLED BID

Many old-timers in bridge will recall playing "Twenty Questions" at the home of the late P. Hal Sims in Deal, N.J., years ago. I was interested in learning how the Van Deventer family got started on "Twenty Questions" and built it up to the largest chain radio program in the country.

It is heard on 425 stations across the nation every Saturday night, except on the Pacific Coast developed "Twenty Questions," where it is rebroadcast on Sunday nights. Although the family Fred has never given up his newscasting. He still broadcasts daily over a New York station. The Van Deventer family often discussed the possibilities of a quiz program. dinner, daughter Nancy said, "Dad, why not 'Animal, Vegetable, Mineral'?" It took some time to get the program under way.

I asked Van Deventer if there was any luck in coming up with the right answer on "Twenty Questions." He said, "Certainly, just the same as there is in bridge. I think I was pretty lucky to make six clubs on today's hand."

Van Deventer won the opening lead of the jack of clubs with the queen and then led a heart. North jumped in with the ace and immediately tried to set the contract by cashing the ace of diamonds, but Van Deventer trumped this. He cashed two more clubs and led a heart, which he won with the queen in dummy. He now led the queen of diamonds, which South did not cover, so he discarded a spade. He now proceeded to cash the jack and ten of diamonds, upon which he discarded his losing spades, thus making six clubs.

A preview of new National Film Board releases will be shown at the screening room, 1217 Wharf Street at 8 Friday. All delegates of the Greater Victoria Film Council are urged to attend this special showing and to bring anyone interested in 16 m.m. productions based on current topics.

Boudreau Charges Pitcher When Hit

Virgil (Fire) Trucks, Detroit's strong-armed right-hander, is challenging New York's Vic Raschi for American League pitching honors.

Trucks is even outshining Hal Newhouser, his illustrious southpaw mate. With the season only one-third gone, the 30-year-old Alabamian already has won nine games against three losses. Only Raschi, with 10, has won more.

Trucks limited Philadelphia to one hit last night as the Tigers blanked the Athletics 4 to 0. Only a fifth-inning single by Hank Majeski prevented him from hurling the season's first no-run, no-hit game. Elmer Valo, who walked in the second, was the only other Mackman to reach base.

The Tigers iced the game in the first inning, scoring three times against Carl Scheib. The victory left the second-place Tigers three games behind the Yankees. Raschi notched his 10th triumph against one defeat without much trouble as the Yankees shellacked Chicago White Sox 15 to 3. Tommy Henrich, back after a five-day layoff, hit his 12th home run for the Yankees.

SIXTH TO FOURTH

Cleveland vaulted from sixth to fourth place in the American League after trouncing the Red Sox in Boston 10 to 5.

Bob Feller, who had lost his last five starts, went all the way for the Indians to gain his second victory of the season, both at the Red Sox's expense.

Manager Lou Boudreau, who played first base for the first time in his career, was struck on the left elbow by Dobson after Gordon's blow. He advanced toward the mound, and almost started a free-for-all when players from both benches swarmed out on the field.

St. Louis Browns finally beat Washington 7 to 2 after losing eight straight decisions to the Senators. Lefty Joe Ostrowski pitched six-hit ball to gain his first victory of the year.

Brooklyn increased its National League lead to three games over the Cardinals with a 7 to 2 triumph over St. Louis. Preacher Roe, who shut out the Red Birds earlier this season, beat them again with a 10-hit effort for the Dodgers' eighth straight triumph.

TRIPLE PLAY SEEN

Pee Wee Reese led a 16-hit attack against Howie Pollet and three relief pitchers with three hits. The Dodgers gave Roe perfect field support, coming up with four double plays. The Cards, too, came up with a fielding gem—triple play—only the second in the majors this year.

Wally Westlake climaxed a round-the-clock batting day by rapping a ninth-inning double to drive in the tying and winning runs in Pittsburgh's 4 to 3 victory over the Boston Braves. Westlake previously had hit a homer, triple and single.

Larry Jansen registered his first shutout of the year as the New York Giants defeated the Reds in Cincinnati 2 to 0.

Cerdan Rules 8-5

Favorite To Whip

LaMotta Tonight

DETROIT (AP)—Marcel Cer-

dan, the carefree fighting man from French Morocco, tonight risks his world middleweight title for the first time against squad Jake LaMotta, an 8-5

underdog from New York.

Cash from Jake's home city where he has an interest in two small fight clubs, beat down the price on Cerdan who opened a 5-12 choice. It may go even lower by ring time for the 15-round bout at Briggs Stadium.

LaMotta, beaten only once in 15 Detroit appearances, will be the sentimental choice of the crowd.

A house of 20,000 and a gate of about $225,000 is the best guess although Nick London, local

"promoter" of the International

Boxing Club's first title venture, still talks about $300,000. There will be no radio or television and the home folks don't like that.

Heavy showers last night provided some relief from the stifling heat. The weather man predicted, however, that there will be a chance of rain spoiling the show. If it is rained out, the card will be rescheduled for Thursday.

Simmons Cup Play

Scheduled Tomorrow

Greater Victoria Ladies' Lawn

Bowling Association games for the Simmons Cup will be played on the Victoria Club greens on Thursday, starting at 12.30.

Draw follows:

Miss Douglas, Victoria, vs.

Mrs. Wallace, Victoria West.

Mrs. Milnes, Lake Hill, vs. Mrs.

Peden, Canadian Pacific.

Mrs. Wright, Victoria, vs. Mrs.

Lloyd, Victoria West.

Mrs. Moorhouse, Canadian Pacific, vs. Mrs. Butterfield, Victoria.

Victoria West won the Butchart Rose Bowl inter-club competition Monday, defeating Victoria in the final game after both clubs had tied for top honors in the first round with six points.

MacNeil Captains Davis Cup Squad; Tournaments Set

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Lawn Tennis Association Tuesday announced that H. Gordon MacNeil, former Canadian doubles champion and Davis Cup player in 1947, will be non-playing captain of the 1949 Canadian Davis Cup team.

Selection chairman Laird Watt picked a veteran in competitive athletics. MacNeil has been a star not only on the courts, but in pre-war days was a standout hockey player for the old Montreal Victorias in the Quebec Senior League.

Coincident with his appointment as non-playing captain, his tournament committee announced a list of events across Canada sanctioned by the association. Further events will be added to the list, which now comprises:

Vancouver City Open—June 11-18 at J. T. T. C. Vancouver.
Harrison Hotel Invitational—June 25-26 at Harrison Hotel Springs B.C.
Junior Canadian Championships—July 25-29 at Ottawa Bideau.
Western Canada Senior and Junior—July 25-30 at Vancouver L.T.C.
Canadian Championships—Aug. 1-6 at Halifax.
B.C. Senior Provincial Open—Aug. 1-6 at Victoria L.T.C.
B.C. Clay Court Open—Aug. 8-13 at Vancouver B.C. Electric.
B.C. Junior—Aug. 13-31 at Vancouver Jockey.
Vancouver Island Open—Aug. 17-20 at South Cowichan.
Pacific Northwest Closed—Aug. 17-20 at South Cowichan.

Loop Leaders Meet Eagles Tonight

Rosy McCallan's Pitzer and Nex nine, which has been playing first-rate ball this year after finishing in the loop cellar last season, will have an opportunity to extend its lead at the top of the senior baseball loop to two full games in a clash with the cellar-dwelling Eagles tonight at Beacon Hill, starting at 6.30.

A win for the birdmen, however, would slice the gasmen's margin to one game and boost the former to a third-place tie with the Navy. Cliff Hume will probably lose the slab for the leaders with Bill Prior the likely starter for Eagles.

Owing to the fact that several members of the Boosters Club will be in attendance at the graduation ceremonies at Victoria High School, Friday night's tussle between Boosters and Navy has been postponed.

Junior Boxla Opens Tonight

After an absence of several years, junior box lacrosse returns to Victoria this evening when Pro Patria and Selkirk Jokers clash at Stevenson Park at 6.30.

During the past few years there has been little to entice the teen-age athletes toward the gutted-stick pastime—but this season, with the prospect of at least a few games, possibly playoffs, being held in the Memorial Arena, the Greater Victoria Lacrosse Association has gone after younger players.

A lacrosse clinic was held in May, and sticks and balls were provided at considerably less than cost to promote the game. For the past three weeks, players between the ages of 16 and 20 have been turning out to practices, and are primed for tonight's opener.

BRIGHT UNIFORMS

Pro Patria, in red and green uniforms, will have Ray Carter, in gold, with Gordy Stewart, Den Douglas and Dave Jones on defence.

For forwards, centre and rover duty will be Fred Merriman, Ross Jewell, Al McLean, Lorne and Evan Oakley, Norm Kowalyk, Bill Bamford and Bob Ritchie. In addition, Norm Allen and Jim McKeachie, who are handling the Pro-Patria squad, hope to have three or four more players on hand by game time.

Selkirk Jokers, being run by Ken Banks and Ralph Temple, both of whom play for Jokers in the senior league, will have Wayne Henderson in goal, with Ed Hardy, Don Smyth and Bud Leonard on defence.

Forwards include Sid Salmon, Bob Seens, Des Corry, Gerry Stark, Rob Day, Ken Hoyt, Buzz and Bill Hudson and Alan Husband. The younger Jokers team directed at him and the majority of these were from close range.

Banks caught the Bay's defence flat-footed when he stayed up the floor on a rush, and he waited for his team to get the ball. Andy Brown finally picked up the ball and let go with a long pass that Banks snared and converted it into a goal to put Jokers ahead 7 to 6. Banks completed the scoring for the night and the winners held on to the ball for practically the remaining five minutes of play.

Jokers Stop Leaders To Tighten Boxla Race

Jokers stopped Foul Bay's winning streak at four straight last night at Stevenson Park when they hammered out an 8 to 6 win in the Senior Lacrosse League. The season's largest crowd witnessed the best game of the year, as the teams finally showed signs of settling down to good lacrosse.

Kenny Banks of Jokers was the hero of the game. He broke loose from his check and blasted a shot past Aln Thompson in goal to break a 6 to 6 tie at the five-minute mark of the final period. Banks also scored the last goal of the game when he picked up a loose ball on the boards at his own blue line and shuffled past defenceman Art Green of Foul Bay and let go with a waist-high shot that Thompson never saw.

HALBERT SPARKS BAYS

Jokers took the lead at the 1.26 mark of the first period on a goal by Gordy Ellis. Tom Halbert of Foul Bay persevered long enough on a solo effort to finally tie up the game at 1 all after eight minutes of the initial period. Halbert didn't turn out to play until the Bay's playing captain, Dick Chunggraves, had injured his knee, and his sparkling play has given the Gonzales boys a needed lift in the games he has played in so far.

Ellis scored his second goal of the period and Kenny Banks scored his first goal to give Jokers a 3 to 1 lead at the end of the period.

Will Scott of Foul Bay scored the only goal of the second period when he picked up a floor-length pass from Jack Thompson, faked Bill Andrews out of position and pushed in a high shot.

Halbert put his team on even terms again at 3 to 3 on a pass from Len Scott. Art Booth marked up his first goal of the season from a scramble in front of the Bay's goal and Jokers moved ahead 4 to 3.

Foul Bay's defence let up at this stage of the game and Alan Rhodes was left alone in front. He gave Thompson a quarter on a low hard shot to give Jokers a two-goal lead at 5 to 3. Halbert, Jackson Walker and Len Scott put on a pretty passing display with Scott giving Andrews no chance on the shot. Larry Booth picked up his own rebound and completed the effort with a goal to give Jokers a two-goal bulge again at 6 to 4.

TIENG GOAL

Ken Druce closed the gap and Walker bounced off the boards behind the goal, cut in front of Andrews and scored in the top corner to tie the game at six goals apiece at the end of the third period.

Both teams slowed up considerably in the final period and the players lay back waiting for a break. Bill Andrews rose to great heights in this period as he turned aside eight shots will also have additional men available by game time.

There may be some revamping of teams, but the line-ups above are pretty well definite for tonight's game.

BALANCED TEAMS

Idea of the lacrosse association is to get two junior teams which are evenly balanced, then take an all-star junior team, with players between 18 and 20, for provincial playoffs, and those between 16 and 18 for a juvenile "A" entry in provincial playoffs.

League president Doug Fletcher today appealed to lacrosse fans to support the up-and-coming players.

"If we want to have an inter-city team for the future, we must have younger players being groomed. The junior league needs the support of fans," he said.

The Tower of London once housed a menagerie.

It is a well-known fact that Coach Roy Barnes of the United will give up his position.

In talks with Barnes he has told me he will tender his resignation before another season rolls around. The same holds true for Ed Mackenzie, team secretary.

Don McDiarmid, president of the United, has not declared himself, although I hear he is also considering retiring from the post.

However, all three officials, have no desire to leave the United before attempting to make arrangements for another group to take over.

BARNES is quite ready to step down. "My two years' association with the United have been pleasant ones," he said. "I have really enjoyed working with the boys but I must admit I have failed in my aims. When I took over the United it was my ambition to improve the calibre of football as played by the inter-city club and this I have failed to do. However, I must say, that the majority of football followers have no idea of the stumbling blocks that face a coach handling the United club. I still think a good inter-city team in this city would prove a financial success and I would certainly not like to see Victoria ever drop its franchise in the league."

Whether or not the Legion group enters the inter-city soccer picture will likely hinge on a couple of points. It is not likely the veteran's organization would want to take over the inter-city club under the United name. They figure, and rightly so, a team would draw much better as far as they are concerned playing under the Legion name. Secondly, I feel sure the Legion would want to make sure it could import several players to be sure and provide the city with a first-class club.

Pre-Derby Salmon Catches In Saanich Inlet Include 3 Bronze Button Fish

By ROY THORSEN
With the first big derby just a few days off, a survey of the Saanich Inlet boathouses today revealed that three button-size salmon were taken last Sunday and quite a number ranging from 10 to 19 pounds.

Top weight catch was a 26½ pound beauty reeled in by Jack Saunders, just below McKenzie Bay. He was out with anglers' derby chairman, Les Dicks. The big one was lured with a 50-50 wonder spoon. They caught one other, about six or eight pounds, according to Harry Gilbert, who also reported that the team of Huskins and Kirk caught a 14-pounder.

At the lower end of the inlet, May Hall reported Bob Warnock boated a 23¼-pounder in the waters off the island. He was using a wonder half and half. Chris Heglin landed a 23-pounder. He also brought back four smaller salmon.

Harry Peard reported several catches of good-sized fish. Catches reported: Weighed in at Hall's Boathouse: Percy Daggett, 19½ lbs., to win the Yarrow's Electrical Shop employees' fish derby; H. Bligh, 15¼ lbs.; G. McLaughlin, 12¼ and three smaller; Arthur Walton, 11 lbs.; J. Larson, 16 lbs.; H. Harrison, 8 lbs., two blues;

R. Bridle, two 8 lbs.; Gordon Ball, 8½ lbs.; Frank Moore, three small springs, and F. Earl, 9¼ lbs.

Weighed in at the Anchorage Boathouse: G. McIntosh, 17½ lbs.; Ernie Wolf, 15 lbs.; Harry Jones, 12 lbs.; Frank Pomeroy, 17½ lbs. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sells, five small springs. Most of the catches were taken from McKenzie Bay down with the wonder spoon. The most popular, although plugs also scored. Daggett got his fish on a Hanson. Lines being used to catch the fish ranged from 150 feet and well upward with planners or lead weight used for sinking.

Students Down Tiremen On Chan's Four-Hitter

Douglas Tire's nine-game winning streak in the Senior A Softball League came to an abrupt ending last night at Central Park as Jim Chan of Chinese Students throttled the league leaders with four hits in chalking up a 4 to 1 triumph. Chan didn't pick any easy mark in beating the tiremen, as he was up against ace of Jim Lackie's hurling staff — Ken Gunter.

Gunter allowed but seven hits, but two came in the first inning when the Students put together base knocks by Jimmy John and Quinton Mar with a base on balls and a Douglas Tire error for three runs.

That proved to be all the margin Chan needed as he held the hard-hitting former western Canada champions in command all the way.

Only Douglas Tire tally came in the third inning when Jimmy Morrison singled home Dale Kilshaw, who had doubled.

Winners scored their final run in the fourth on a single by Ray Lee, a sacrifice hit and a single by Bung Derr.

Toy Mar turned in a sensational performance in right field for the Students with six putouts in the game, three in one inning, the feature being a backhand stab of a foul fly from the bat of Gar Taylor.

Tonight Timber Service gain a chance to move into undisputed possession of second place when they meet the cellar-dwelling Bluebird Cabs at Central Park at 6:45.

At present the timbermen are tied with Brentwood Aces for second place, with Students half a game back, in fourth spot.

Lawn Bowling

The Burnside Lawn Bowling Club entertained 24 members of the Woodlawn Lawn Bowling Club of Seattle over the weekend.

The score for the afternoon game, Seattle 78, Burnside 81. The winner of the evening draw game was J. Imrie's rink, consisting of Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Seales, A. Moyes and J. Imrie. A return game has been arranged when the Burnside Club will travel to Seattle Dominion Day with the games to take place on July 2.

The second round of the Malin Cup will be played, at the Burnside greens tonight at 7:15.

CHARLEY MORAN DIES

HORSE CAVE, Ky. (AP)—Charles B. (Uncle Charley) Moran, 70, former National League baseball umpire, died Tuesday. He had been in failing health for some time.

He retired in 1939 as a National League umpire after spending 23 years in that job.

B.C. Pro Golfers Consider Secession From Ruling Body

VANCOUVER (CP)—Possibility of secession from the Canadian Professional Golf Association by British Columbia pro golfers is hinted by Jock McKinnon, president of the B.C. branch of the C.P.G.A.

Because the pro shotsmiths feel they have been "deliberately double-crossed" by the C.P.G.A.—parent golf body in Canada—McKinnon said last night, they'll decide at a meeting here Thursday whether to leave the C.P.G.A. and seek membership in the American Professional Golf Association, Pacific Northwest branch.

It was the latest development in the squabble over dates of the two top golf tournaments, the Canadian Open and the C.P.G.A. Open.

It's doubtful whether a pro golfer from west of the Lakehead will enter the Canadian Open—making it an eastern Canadian open—billed for June 22-25 at the St. George's layout in Inlington, a Toronto suburb.

MANY STAY HOME

Already on record that they won't compete in the Canadian Open or the C.P.G.A. Open, to be held at the Stagnery Club, near Ottawa, Sept. 8 and 9, are B.C. pros Stan Leonard, Fred Wood, Jock McKinnon, Benny Colk, Ernie Brown and Dunc Sutherland, Les Beaven of Winnipeg, Pat Fletcher of Saskatoon, and Henry Martell of Edmonton.

Here is the pros' complaint: Instead of arranging the two tournaments to follow each other in the same city—as agreed at a C.P.G.A. meeting here last year—the Open will be played next week and the C.P.G.A. Open nearly two months later.

That means two trips east for the western pros and they don't feel they can afford the extra financial outlay or the extra time spent away from their home clubs.

Says McKinnon, spokesman for the B.C. pros: "We'll leave with a lot of regret. But their action leaves us no option. There's no sense in belonging to the thing if they continue to ride over us."

LAST STRAW

"Why should we go on paying dues and get nothing out of it, this incident is pretty well the last straw."

In Toronto yesterday, Earl Morris, managing director of the C.P.G.A. said the organization "sympathizes" with the western pros but gave two reasons why the tournaments are not to be staged together.

"First the Open had to be held early to fit in with the schedule of big tournaments in the United States, and secondly, we couldn't get a course in the country for our (the C.P.G.A.) tournament a week prior to this championship."

Beavers Blanked By National Champions

Phoenix, United States women's softball champions, defeated Hollywood's Bay Beavers, 6 to 0, before a crowd of 3,000 in the final game of the island team's American tour last night.

Flo Kennedy hurried for the Beavers and allowed nine hits, but her teammates, apparently suffering from heat fatigue—the temperature was 102—made nine errors.

Coach Ivan Temple said he considered the girls made a fair showing against the U.S. champions and gained much experience on the trip.

Adverts Climb Into Second-Place Tie

Adverts whipped Dodgegates, 12 to 3, in last night's senior B women's softball fixture to move into a second-place tie with Toppers in the league race.

Sheila King went the distance for the winners.

Games scheduled this week find Adverts meeting Toppers at lower Central Park Friday, while tomorrow night Red's Service will meet Eatons as the same park.

RESTLESS NIGHTS

Often mid-life brings on trouble—some irregularities in kidney functioning, an affliction which responds well to magnesium treatment (MAGNOLIPS). Burning sensations, painful twitches are relieved, and the bladder returns to normal. The patient feels an almost immediate change for the better in his whole being.

Magnolips are for sale at all drug stores.

Seattle Beats Seals To Close On Leaders

Seattle is closing the gap on Hollywood in the Coast League baseball race. The league-leading Stars lost 7 to 6 Tuesday night to Sacramento, the fourth loss in a row for the Twinks. Seattle, meanwhile, literally walked to a 6 to 4 win over San Francisco to come within five and a half games of Hollywood.

The Solons' win came about when Walt Dropp tripled in the eighth and then scored on Fred Marsh's infield hit.

Seal pitcher Con Dempsey walked across three runs in the last of the seventh as the Rainiers strolled out of a 4 to 3 deficit. Dempsey had 10 walks in all during the night plus two wild pitches.

The league cellar has a new tenant for the first time in months—Los Angeles. Portland, the former tenant, moved out on a 10th inning run that ripped the Angels 4 to 3. Joe Brovia hit a long double and Johnny Rucker sprinted all the way from first to score.

A near capacity crowd of 10,915 turned out at Oakland to see big Luke Easter belt some homers but the Padre first baseman went hitless. However, Max West, Harvey Storey and Orestes Minoso obliged the crowd with round trippers as the Padres took the Oaks 5 to 4.

Salvationists Ask Public To Send In Contributions Now

The Salvation Army's Red Shield campaign in Greater Victoria has now passed the $24,000 mark, Maj. C. J. Milley, public relations officer, said today.

He added that the campaign, which has an objective of $30,000, will continue all this week and next. Of the money received, $22,000 will be used for general social welfare work, with the remainder earmarked for aid for elderly people.

Maj. Milley appealed to citizens who have not been canvassed at their homes to send their contributions in to campaign headquarters at Prince Robert House, Douglas Street.

He said practically all residential areas had now been canvassed, so if there are some people who have not spoken to a canvasser, it likely means the latter called when the resident was out.

Since areas cannot be covered twice, it is requested that donations should be sent in without delay.

"Donations are really needed—we have numerous aid programs planned—but the support of the public is essential," Maj. Milley said.

Much-Traveled Ex-Governor Prefers Vancouver Island

A straightforward question to a future resident of Vancouver Island brought forth an equally straightforward answer today.

Asked why he had chosen this island to settle after having spent 37 years in the British colonial service, Sir Donald Mackenzie-Kennedy, K.C.M.G., former governor of Mauritius, answered, "I have seen a good deal of the world and this is the spot I like best."

Sir Donald, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Palmer, 1580 York Place, arrived here a few days ago with his wife and daughter, Mrs. J. S. Prestige. He says he intends to "take it easy" for six months or so, during which time he hopes to find a nice place to settle down in "retirement from government service, not from an active life."

LENGTHY SERVICE

Sir Donald, 60, embarked on his foreign service career in 1912 when he joined the Northern Rhodesia administration. He was chief secretary to the government of that country from 1930 until 1935, when he moved to a similar post in Tanganyika Territory.

In 1939 he was made governor and commander-in-chief of Nyasaland, and took over the same position of Mauritius and its dependencies in 1942.

While still governor of Nyasaland, Sir Donald took over as chief political liaison officer of the East Africa force from the outbreak of the Second World War until April, 1940.

One of his outstanding achievements as governor of Mauritius was the framing and inauguration of a new liberal constitution for the island colony off South Africa's coast.

Mauritius is 1,500 miles from Durban, South Africa, and the same distance from Ceylon. It is between 400 and 500 miles east of Madagascar. It has several dependencies, furthest of which is the Chagos group, 750 miles from Mauritius.

Noted for its sugar production, the island was taken from the French by the British in 1810 for strategic reasons.

It has a population of about 200 British whites, 12,000 French whites, 127,000 colored people, 247,000 Hindus, 20,000 Moslems and 11,000 Chinese. Sir Roland said.

HERE IN 1947

The crisp-voiced Englishman said he decided to retire to this area when he was on a 10-day visit here in 1947 during a hurried six-week tour of Canada.

At that time, too, he was the guest of Mr. Palmer. The two became friends as young men when the latter was in the army in Rhodesia.

Sir Donald and Lady Mackenzie-Kennedy have their entire family in Canada now.

Their eldest son, who is 28, is employed by Canadian General Electric in Vancouver; another son, 23, is at the Coldstream Ranch, Vernon, while the youngest, 18, has just completed his first year of engineering at McGill University.

Mrs. Prestige is the second eldest in the family of four.

Three Young Men Say It Was Chinese Who Started Fight

It was a case of mistaken intention on the part of the Chinese alleged to have been assaulted by young white men on darkened Government Street at 2:30 on the morning of June 4.

Stories told by John W. Oosterink and David Manzer, both 22, charged with assaulting George Chan, 37, indicated this in city police court today when they appeared on remand. Thomas R. Bowden, another member of the party called as defence witness, gave evidence that corroborated the testimony of the other two.

Magistrate H. C. Hall, after hearing all the evidence and counsel summing up, said the defence story was "improbable and very difficult to accept, but I will consider it until Friday morning at 10."

Oosterink, Manzer and Bowden told the court they had come down to Chinatown to get cigarettes from the Canada Cafe and on pulling into the curb saw two of their friends, Leslie Sawyer and John Delmer, passing in a car.

According to their story Oosterink got out of the car and hailed the passing riders, with the result the other car pulled into the curb near Cormorant Street.

Oosterink said he proceeded to run down the sidewalk and met Chan in the middle of the block. Witness said he was paying no attention to the Chinese but that when he came up to him the Chinese "suddenly faced me and struck me in the eye and I went down on my back on the pavement." Oosterink said he saw feet coming at him, which he grabbed, and Chan lost his balance and came down on top of him.

"In a couple of seconds Bowden came running down the street and pulled Chan off me. I was sitting on the street when Chan went after Bowden, swinging wildly," said Oosterink.

Witness said he got up and put his arms around Chan's neck.

"He started yelling and kicking and I let him go," said Oosterink.

Bowden, witness said, did not hit the Chinese, but was merely warding him off.

Bowden, in the witness stand, said he was only warding off Chan's blow and declared the only force used against the Chinese was for self-protection.

Exidence was that Manzer came up as the Chinese went running up the street whistling "through his teeth" and yelling for help. There was no evidence that Manzer had been involved in the actual assault.

STORIES DIFFER

Chan in court last Saturday said he heard a male voice say, after seeing the three men in the road: "Let's rush him" and that the attack came. He said at that time Oosterink fired the first blow and hit him in the mouth, also that Bowden struck him.

David Sloan, defence counsel, asked for dismissal of the charges. He noted that the stories of all three were pretty accurate and thought that, if anything, it was a plain case of Oosterink being the assaulted party. Counsel contended that the charge against Manzer should not have been laid as he took no part in the incident.

In regard to Manzer, Joseph McKenna, prosecutor, said that, under the Criminal Code, Manzer was one of the group.

"All," he said, "are equally guilty whether they strike blows or not, especially when this is tied with the statement Chan said he heard 'let's rush him'."

Defence witnesses said they thought the Chinese was either crazy or drunk from his actions.

Refuses To Order Vessel In Drydock

Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane today dismissed an application of McKay-Cormack Ltd. for an order for the immediate drydocking and inspection of the motor-sailer Menita. The vessel is owned by Capt. William B. L. Holms of View Royal.

The vessel is the subject of litigation in Supreme Court, the boat-building company claiming Capt. Holms owes $11,000 for the conversion of the former R.C.A.F. aircraft vessel into a motor-sailer.

The applicants sought to have the vessel put in drydock on grounds that the boat was leaking and was in need of repair.

R. D. Harvey, K.C., was counsel for Capt. Holms.

Damage $1,500 In Hit-Run Crash; Youth, 16, Arrested

A total of $1,500 damage was estimated to two cars involved in a hit-and-run accident on Dallas Road early this morning and the 16-year-old youth who beat it from the scene was picked up covering in some bushes close to the abandoned 1948 five-passenger coupe he had been driving.

The youth, found bleeding from cuts to the hands, was turned over to the city juvenile officer.

City police reported receiving a report that a car had hit a telephone pole on Dallas at Clover Point at 6:45. Another report followed five minutes later that a car had struck a car owned by M. S. Lawson, 249 Maddock Street, parked in front of 1208 Dallas, and had kept on going.

Constables N. Galbraith, J. Birch, J. Strong, A. Wilson, R. Berry, J. Sweeney and N. Bouchard in several police cars, including the patrol wagon, started a search of the district to find the runaway driver.

While this was in progress D. Morgan, driver for the North-western Dairy, reported a damaged car abandoned in the grass lane east of Richmond Avenue, opposite where Despard Avenue ends.

Police found the inside of the car smeared with blood, but no occupant. Constable Richard Berry returned to the place where the car was parked, after checks had shown no one had been to hospital to be treated for injuries, and found the bleeding youth in the bushes, with his hands covering his face.

Local Honor Play Presented At Kiwanis Luncheon

Something new in luncheon entertainment was provided for members of the Victoria Kiwanis Club at the Empress Hotel Tuesday when three members of the Victoria Players' Guild performed "The Marriage Proposal."

The presentation was well received by club members. It was one of three chosen for an honor performance at the recent Drama Festival here. Taking part were Archie Bain, Donald Wilson and Kathleen Baker.

Alec McGowan, president of the Victoria Players' Guild, stated that the play was recently staged in Portland in connection with the annual Rose Festival. It marked the first occasion a local drama group had performed in Portland and it was also the first time the auditorium was filled to capacity, he stated.

Mrs. Audrey St. D. Johnson gave a brief address to club members. She urged support be given to local groups as well as the numerous outside attractions. "Drama has a lot to offer in the way of personality, poise and education," she said.

State Prince George Epidemic Overemphasized; Peak Past

The provincial department of health, after consultation with Dr. T. H. Patterson, director, Cariboo health unit and medical health officer for Prince George and district, announced today the epidemic at Prince George is considerably overemphasized.

An uncomplicated illness has been prevalent in the area for the past three weeks, the peak incidence having been reached a week ago, according to the department.

The illness has a duration of eight days and exhibits symptoms of influenza.

The epidemic places a load on the already understaffed hospital. The hospital has been operating for several months with a depleted staff and the epidemic has only served to accentuate it, Dr. Patterson advised.

It is definitely realized that nurses are needed on the hospital staff on a permanent basis, not just to meet an emergency the provincial department of health emphasized today.

Diggon's Staff At Annual Dinner

The annual staff dinner of the Diggon-Hibben Limited Social Club was held recently at the Chez Marcel with 80 members of the staff, their wives, husbands and friends.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Diggon and Mrs. J. Austin Byers.

E. G. Porter acted as chairman and after a sing-song a quiz show was held in the style of a Dr. L. Q. Radio program. Mr. Diggon acted as Dr. L. Q. with Ted Porter and Al Oakley as his assistants.

Presentations were made by Mr. Diggon, on behalf of Mrs. Diggon and himself, to Maj. J. P. Hibben, the oldest member of the firm; to James Elder, as the member with the longest record of continuous service in the original firm of Diggon's Limited; to Bert Hebben with the second longest record, and to Mrs. Elizabeth R. Shaw as the lady with the longest record of service.

The evening closed with impromptu talks and contests. Prizes were won by Mrs. E. Burwash, Mrs. C. Wilman, Mrs. E. Winkel, Mrs. Peggy Thompson, Miss Anne Zlobor and Messrs. Arthur Shaw, Verne Wesley, James Elder, Seedy Thompson and Michael Watt.

300 Veterans' Small Holdings Here In Canada-Wide Contest

This home on one acre of land at 3999 Blenkinsop Road is costing G. Atwood $22 a month under the V.L.A. scheme. A naval veteran in the Second World War, Mr. Atwood keeps the home supplied with vegetables from the garden at the rear of the house, will probably find plenty of other use for his acre before much more time has slipped away.

Throughout Victoria and district more than 300 war veterans who have taken advantage of the Veterans' Land Act to re-establish themselves on Clivvy Street, are participants in the nation-wide small holdings competition which has now entered its final stages.

G. S. Way, V.L.A. official from Ottawa, is on the coast at the present time making a tour of district offices of the administration to complete judging details. "Every one in the small holding plan is automatically in this competition covering the length and breadth of the Dominion," said G. L. Chatterton, regional supervisor of the Veterans' Land Act here.

An air force veteran, Mr. Chatterton reported there are 675 small holders on Vancouver Island.

Altogether between 16,000 and 17,000 small holdings will be assessed during the next two months. There are 124 V.L.A. subdivisions across Canada — from which 35 will be chosen to be judged to qualify for the $9,000 worth of prizes in the competition.

In British Columbia individual and small holders' properties, both those on subdivisions and not on subdivisions, will be assessed by a team of three B.C. judges, consisting of two V.L.A. officials and a horticultural expert not associated with the administration.

District offices will forward to Ottawa their selections for the contest between subdivisions as communities by the end of July.

A judging team from the V.L.A. head office will visit these entries during August to determine the winners. B.C. District will be entering six subdivisions in this phase of the competition, which is divided into three groups according to the number of houses, with a first, second and third prize for each group.

Competition is for the purpose of spurring small holdings owners to maintain, keep up maintenance on their homes and make them attractive and other developments—the three points on which properties are being judged to qualify in the prize list.

A tour of small holdings in this area provides a pleasing picture of neat, comfortable-looking homes, of rock gardens and other landscaping beautifying efforts and general development work on acreage involved.

Most veterans under V.L.A. have established their homes on untouched property. Others have secured layouts already equipped with homes and gardens.

Top prizes for the best small holdings are worth $20 and there are many other prizes graduating downward from that figure. Best of the largest subdivisions will receive a prize worth $150, with other prizes ranging downward to $20 for third prize for the third group.

Nursery stock, playground equipment and other things that add to the value of the properties and communities will be awarded rather than cash.

The regional supervisor reported that the interest in the V.L.A. small holdings scheme is just as popular as ever on Vancouver Island and said there is still just as much land available for the plan as ever before.

He said the V.L.A. plan was especially popular with retired permanent forces' personnel.

Brig. W. C. Thackeray, retired after 30 years of service with the army, in which he served overseas in the First World War. D.D.T. sprays some of the 7,000 gladioli plants he grows each year on his attractive property at the northwest corner of Quadra Street and Lily Road. The beautifully landscaped home Brig. Thackeray secured under the V.L.A. was already established, but he has cultivated the entire one and one-third acres to produce small fruits, vegetables, and to follow his favorite pastime of raising flower show prize-winning gladioli blooms.

Fifty years ago the horse-drawn dray was the vehicle used to transport freight and heavy merchandise along the streets. Today trucks of all types and sizes move goods along our streets and highways. Speeds and loads have been steadily increased through better engineering and better materials used in truck construction. Nickel Brings Dollars to Canada

Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.

These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways, to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.

These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.

Turn War Relics Into Useful Scrap

SKELETONS OF SHIPS that went to war with guns or with cargo are carefully picked to pieces by the wreckers on the Patapsco River. The scrap may turn up in a new ship's steel plates.

IN THE GRAVEYARD of outmoded tanks near Baltimore, the torches chop up the steel, the battle mud, and the bloodstains.

BALTIMORE, Md.—An army of men with oxy-acetylene torches is reducing navy ships and army tanks to scrap steel.

In the historic Patapsco River, where once Francis Scott Key watched the British bombard Fort M'Henry, a steady stream of battlefield relics—everything from cruisers to GI helmets—is being broken up into scrap steel to feed peacetime steel furnaces.

One of the ships at the Patapsco Scrap Corporation's yard is the light cruiser Memphis, which once took President Roosevelt to the Casablanca conference. Others are the Detroit, a survivor of Pearl Harbor, and the Richmond and Concord which, like the Detroit, are veterans of Pacific battles.

There's the H.M.S. Emperor, which chased the German pocket battleship Von Tirpitz along the Norwegian coast.

And there are even two ferryboats which once plodded back and forth between Staten Island and Manhattan, in New York Bay.

During the war, this yard was the site of the Bethlehem-Fairfield shipyard, where more than 500 Liberty and Victory ships and LSTs were built. Now the process is reversed and the workmen are ripping the vessels into hunks of scrap.

Besides ships, there are acres of obsolete tanks, several thousand of them piled sometimes five high. Many still have caked mud from rain-drenched battlefields; others have shell holes; a few have blood stains. There are enemy tanks, too, since the steel furnaces know no nationality.

For the first three years after the war, the supply of scrap was critically short. Steel production, tied directly to scrap supply, was short, too. But now scrap yards like Patapsco are in full production, and the steel mills are turning the scrap from tanks and ships into such things as bird cage wire, knitting needles, tin cans, sheets for pleasure cars or new merchant ships.

Shipbreaking, as the reduction of ships into scrap is called, is a highly skilled task requiring careful planning and good judgment by the supervisor and his crew. The vessel, warped to a pier, is worked over by men armed with torches, hacksaws, sledgehammers and cold chisels.

First to come down is the radio aerial, permitting the big cranes to slide freely over the ship. Then, bit by bit, masts and superstructure are removed, decks torn away and the interior fittings taken out. The work proceeds cautiously, lest the ship become unbalanced and capsize. When the vessel has been reduced to a watertight hulk, it is drawn up on shore.

Objects like tanks are often broken up by the simple process of dropping a 10-ton steel ball on them.

No matter what the steel has been used for in the past, it can be remelted and used over and over again. Little is lost per usage. Even rust-oxidized steel is gathered and melted down in some scrap yards.

Says Austin Sales Higher In Canada

L. P. Lord, chairman and managing director of the Austin Motor Company of England is paying a visit to America and Canada, and has spent the last few days in Toronto taking a review of the Canadian market and having a convention with Canadian distributors and dealers.

He expressed surprise and was disturbed when told that a recent Canadian broadcast quoted him as saying in England that the Canadian market for Austin had dried up. His explanation of this was that it was a sentence taken from its context which gave a completely wrong impression.

The quotation came from a recent address in England in which he was explaining that more cars were finding their way onto the British market temporarily because of the normal seasonal recession in Canada in January and February.

The actual facts are that Austin sales in Canada are higher than ever before. The demand is increasing, and he stated as his firm belief that Austin business was increasing, and that this had necessitated further consideration of the future of their Hamilton plant.

Guests Insisted On Right To Sleep

VANCOUVER (CP)—Guests at a hotel here didn't appreciate the symphony played under windows of their rooms Monday night and early today by jack-hammers.

City workmen continued to rip up pavement and informed police officers they were under orders to work until the job was completed.

They soon were dodging beer bottles—some of them still full—hurled from hotel windows by guests. No one was injured, but broken glass flew dangerously close to the three jack-hammer operators.

Complaints soon reached the ears of Acting Mayor Halford Wilson, who instructed city engineer C. A. Battershill to have the work stopped at 1:30 a.m.

Betty Grable Draws High Salary Among U.S. Women

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles P. Skouras, an $810,000-a-year Greek-born movie theatre magnate, is listed in a Treasury report just issued as the highest paid corporation employee in the United States in 1947.

Betty Grable, with $208,000, was the best paid of her sex in a list of more than 1,000 persons who drew more than $75,000 in pay from corporations in 1947 or in business fiscal years ending in 1948.

It was the third consecutive year at the top for Skouras, although his compensation as president of the National Theatres Amusement Company Inc. and of the Fox West Coast Agency Corporation was $175,300 less than they paid him the year before.

The sums listed were before taxes. On single persons, the 1947 federal income tax alone ran about $675,000 on a net income of $800,000, about $408,000 on income of $500,000, about $235,000 on $300,000 and about $149,000 on $200,000.

Both Skouras and Miss Grable could be overtaken later as supplementary lists of corporate salaries in the 1947-48 period are issued by the Treasury.

Miss Grable and actress Olivia de Havilland were the only women among the 47 persons reported to have earned more than $200,000 during 1947.

The top nine behind Skouras were:

Vincent Riggio, president of the American Tobacco Company, with $184,202 in salary and bonus.

Preston Sturges, movie director, Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, $370,650.

E. H. Little, president, Colgate-

Falmolive-Peet Company, $350,000.

A. A. Somerville, executive of the R. T. Vanderbilt Company, $319,398.

Seton Porter, president, National Distillers' Products Corporation, $310,000.

William Randolph Hearst, publisher, $300,000, with $150,000 each from the Hearst Consolidated Publications Inc. and the Hearst Publications Inc.

Theodore Seltzer, president, Bengue Inc., $295,613.

Eugene G. Grace, board chairman, Bethlehem Steel Company, $293,279.

G. A. Bryant, president, The Austin Company, $270,789.

The biggest single payment shown on the list was $857,515 paid by the National Broadcasting Company to "Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians," but it was split up among a group of persons in the orchestra show.

Propose Merger Of Alberni, Port

PORT ALBERNI—Amalgamation of the cities of Alberni and Port Alberni and establishment of new and secondary industries, made possible by cheap power from Campbell River, were among proposals contained in a tentative program of action, presented to a meeting of the Port Alberni Chamber of Commerce by Pitt Clayton, newly-elected president.

The chamber will seek elimination of level crossings on the Island Highway, or alternately the installation of adequate signals.

CAKE TALK
Frances Barton

Every woman knows that food tastes twice as good when it looks attractive. That's why I feel that it is so important that you take the little precautions that are necessary, to make sure your cakes rise evenly and come from the pan without breaking.

For instance—do you always make sure the oven racks are in proper position, before you start heating the oven? They should be so placed that your cakes will receive even heat from top and bottom. And of course, the racks must be level.

Be sure too, that you start heating your oven far enough in advance to have a steady, even heat of the right temperature by the time your batter is ready for the oven.

And to make sure that butter-type cakes come from the pans without breaking—here's our favorite method of preparing pans: Line bottom of the pan with paper... then grease paper and sides of pan with melted butter or shortening. When baked, let cake stand 5 minutes in the pan, turn out on cake rack, and carefully remove paper. For angel or sponge cakes, pans should never be greased.

WONDERFUL RECIPE BOOK "LEARN TO BAKE—YOU'LL LOVE IT!" Success secrets for cakes of every type. Recipes for cakes, frostings, fillings. Full-color photos. Send 20¢ in coins, with your name and address, to General Foods, Limited, Cobourg, Ontario.

HERE'S CAKE as exciting as a youngster's first party—and as feather-light and melting as a snowflake. But for truly satisfying results, be sure you use Swans Down Cake Flour.

Swans Down makes all your cakes much more delicious—helps them to stay fresh longer. Milled from selected wheat by specialists in the making of cake flour, Swans Down is sifted again and again until light as softest down, and 27 times as fine as ordinary flour.

WHITE LAYER CAKE

2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour ½ cup butter or other shortening
2½ teaspoons Columbian Baking Powder ¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon vanilla 3 egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt; sift 3 times. Cream shortening, add 1 cup sugar gradually; cream until light. Add flour, alternately with milk, in small amounts; beat after each addition. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites until foamy; add remaining ¼ cup sugar gradually, and beat until mixture will hold up in soft peaks. Beat thoroughly into batter. Turn into 2 deep 8-inch layer pans which have been lined on bottoms with paper, then greased. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 25 minutes. Wonderful with the Easy Fudge Frosting, page 77 of "Learn to Bake—You'll Love It!" (see book offer on left).

Arrows Mark Britons Working For Recovery

The type of equipment Britain would have had difficulty in obtaining without E.R.P. (Marshall Aid), and thus have had its recovery from war damage retarded, is the giant walking dragline, imported in sections from the U.S., and pictured here at an open-cast coal site in Northumberland. Weighing 1,150 long tons and carrying its own electric generator, the mobile monster's first task is the removal of 24,000,000 long tons of earth between the surface and the coal. An idea of its size can be gathered from the men (marked with arrows) in the pictures, which show assembly (right) and off to work (below). The assembly picture, taken from the end of the dragline's 215-foot jib, also shows (left and centre) derricks used for the job. In the other shot a "foot" (centre foreground) is raised as the mechanical giant moves to the site. British miners in the first three months of this year produced nearly 2,000,000 more long tons of coal than they did in the corresponding period last year.

Oak Bay Avenue Gets New Look In 2 Weeks; One Section Closed

It is expected reconstruction of Oak Bay Avenue from the Oak Bay junction to the city boundary at Foul Bay Road will be completed in about two weeks.

This was reported today by Ald. J. D. Hunter, chairman of City Council's public works committee, who said the road will be similar to the new Cook Street when the work is done.

One section of the avenue, from the boundary to Richmond Road, was closed to traffic today in preparation for paving. Surface gravel was being laid today and the paving would be started Wednesday. It was hoped to have this section completed by Friday night or Saturday.

Then the section of the avenue from Richmond to the junction will be closed for similar treatment. This might be delayed a few days until new curbs being built along both sides of the street are finished. After the road is surfaced, workmen will start raising sidewalks to conform with the new curbs. Cyril Jones, city engineer, said this work might be lengthy. There were many problems involved concerning affect of the new levels of the sidewalk on existing property.

Road work is being carried out also in James Bay where street car rails are being removed, or the tops burned off with acetylene torch, and a section of Richmond Road near Royal Jubilee Hospital is being reconstructed.

GOLDSMITH'S NOVEL MADE AUTHOR FAMOUS AND PUBLISHER RICH

The real education of Oliver Goldsmith came largely after he was graduated from the college at Dublin.

At the age of 26 he left the British Isles to go to the mainland of Europe. There he wandered about in France, Holland, Switzerland and Italy. He studied at two colleges and learned something about medicine. For a time he received sums of money from one of his uncles, but this uncle fell sick and money stopped coming to him.

At that time he was in northern Italy. He decided to walk through France and then board a sailing vessel to reach England.

Goldsmith had only a little knowledge of French, but he could play the flute. While he was in France he earned food and lodging by playing for farmers and others, sometimes providing music for a dance.

Reaching London with only a few pennies in his pockets, he earned his living as well as he could. For a time he held a place as a teacher at a school for boys. He also served as a doctor, doing work for families which could afford to pay very little.

One of his patients was a printer, and this man helped him to meet the owner of the shop. Goldsmith was now given small jobs reading proofs, and he also started writing articles for magazines.

Dr. Samuel Johnson became a good friend of Goldsmith, and helped to bring about the sale of "The Vicar of Wakefield." For this novel, Goldsmith was paid a sum equal to about $300.

It came into print two years later, and made its author famous and the publisher rich.

That was Goldsmith's only novel, but he wrote a number of plays and poems. His long poem, "The Deserted Village," has proved to be a classic.

Goldsmith died at the age of 45. His friends raised money to pay for a statue of him to be placed in Westminster Abbey.

Objects To Gospel Singers At Beach

Claims that sunbathers at Gonzales Beach object to having "religion yelled at them" on Sunday afternoons were made to the city today by a resident of Robertson Street.

Yvo P. A. Vesey said in a letter to City Council if the Ross Bay gospel singers, given permission to hold services on the beach between 3 and 4 on Sunday afternoons, were only singers of hymns no one would mind.

"But," he stated, "between each hymn comes a period of preaching and this is what is so objectionable—the yelling and what is being said by the different speakers."

Mr. Vesey said that if people wanted religion they could go to their churches.

"We don't want religion yelled at us when we are trying to relax on a beautiful Sunday afternoon," he said.

He complained, too, that religious pamphlets distributed by the singers usually were torn up and left to make the beach unsightly.

June 24 Deadline For Entries In Alaska Race

Ray Hart Jr., president of the International Power Boat Association, has reminded possible entrants in the "capital to capital" Olympic to Juneau race that the deadline for entries is June 24.

Entries for the first leg of the race only, from Olympia to Nanaimo, will be accepted up to July 1. This race will be run July 8.

The second leg from Nanaimo to Prince Rupert, and the final leg on to Juneau.

The event is a predicted log race, which means the skipper coming closest to his scheduled running time is the winner.

Within the Compass

In less than one hundred years, Canada rose from a colony in the wilderness to be the third largest exporting nation in the world.

This growth was possible because Canada's expansion has been within the compass of a sound and reasoned economy.

We are all freedom-loving, industrious people. We work hard as individuals... and the combined result has been progress and prosperity for our nation. We've proved that our way is right. Let's keep proving it!

The Engineers are typical of the soldiers of Canada's new Army. They are fully taught for such trades as draughting, carpentry, brick-laying and mechanics. Young men with Senior Matriculation are being sent to University on full pay and allowances—tuition and books free. Upon graduation, these men will be granted commissions. Truly, Canada's new Army has a great deal to offer young men of ambition.

Visit your nearest recruiting office soon. Get full details on the advantages of an Army career. You are eligible if you are 17 years of age or over and can meet Army requirements. Bring along certificates of your age and education.

DO YOU KNOW about TRAVEL RATION REGULATIONS?

It saves time and trouble when you familiarize yourself with the regulations regarding travel to the United States before you set out on your trip. Here are the facts:

1. The allowance for pleasure travel during the current ration period of November 16th, 1948, to November 15th, 1949, is $150 U.S. per person ($100 in the case of children under 11 years old).
2. A Form H permit, obtainable at any bank, is required to take out of Canada amounts exceeding $10 U.S. or $25 U.S. and Canadian funds.
3. Special allowances are granted for strictly business travel where your application is certified by your employer.
4. Applications for larger amounts of U.S. funds for travel for health or educational purposes may be made on special forms obtainable at your bank.

Dutch Airlines Operate In Black

By ROBERT L. BEARD
THE HAGUE—The world's oldest air line hopes to cut a big 30th birthday cake, with sweet frosting, this summer or fall.

Now that the Netherlands government and the Republic of Indonesia have got together, KLM, (the Royal Dutch Air Lines) hopes that before the end of the year it can reopen its 8500-mile Amsterdam to Batavia run, and link up Europe and the Americas with its 15,000-mile inter-island network.

That would add greatly to the present 75,000 miles of routes that sprawl over most of the civilized world. On the basis of past experience, it would add something like 50 per cent to KLM's income.

Both of these prospects are very pleasing to Dr. Albert Plesman. As a young Netherlands air force lieutenant, he founded KLM in 1919 with one DeHavilland open plane that bore two leather-clad passengers on a chill three-hour trip between Amsterdam and London.

OPERATE IN BLACK

In spite of what the war did to the Netherlands and to its far eastern possessions—and in spite of the Indonesian service suspension forced by the republic's rebellion—Dr. Plesman has kept his world-wide air lines operating in the black, without any of the subsidies which most governments give to their competing systems.

The Dutch government owns a big chunk of KLM stock, but its relationship is only that of a heavy stockholder. Dr. Plesman and his associates have built the little one-plane line into one of the Big Four in the international field. Experts rate it with Pan American, British Overseas and Air France in route mileage and business done.

The first of this year, KLM started a three-week service to Batavia by way of Khartoum and Mauritius Island that involves the longest over-water hop any air line ever scheduled—a 15-hour flight of almost 3500 miles over the Indian Ocean. This is only a stop gap, to be replaced by regular service through Cairo, Karachi, Calcutta and Singapore.

Nobody in the Royal Dutch offices here is willing to offer a formula for running an air line with black ink in these days. When they discuss the method, it is a story of a bit here, a bit there—an application of air travel of the prudence and skill that for generations made the tiny Netherlands a maritime power, and built up a far-flung colonial empire. Some observers say the KLM approach resembles that by which Eddie Rickenbacker has built up Eastern Airlines in the U.S. field.

BIG EXPANSION

At the end of 1945, KLM had only 1800 employees. The Indies, from which a third of income should come, were wholly disorganized after Japanese occupation and by the independence movement. Holland was in bad shape at home. Schiphol Airport, in 1939 one of the Continent's finest, had been utterly destroyed by the Germans.

Today, the line has some 12,500 employees. It is operating 75,000 miles of routes among Europe, North and South America, Africa and the Far East. Last year it carried about 400,000 passengers, its planes flew 22 million miles, and its cargo business was more than tripled since the war.

Schiphol Airport again is among Europe's finest, handling more than 100 flights a day for KLM and a dozen foreign lines. Dr. Plesman's pre-war aircraft have been replaced to a considerable extent with the best products of American factories. He was among the first to get Constellations. As soon as Douglas' new DC-6 was available he took seven of them for the South American and South African services.

DAYS HOING DONE IN AN HOUR ON THREE CONTINENTS—With reputations for doing the equivalent of a day's hand hoeing in an hour, British-manufactured rotary hoes are on their way to Canada and the U.S. Named Gems, the machines are also being imported by 43 other countries. Pictured here are Gems at work on three continents—making irrigation furrows in Africa (left), cutting overgrowth in Europe (top right), and working in a rice field in Asia (bottom right). Manufacturer's claims for them are: Self-sharpening blades which lift, break up and aerate the soil and mix it with cover crops, fertilizers or manures; a special safety clutch which prevents damage by hidden rocks or other objects. With special attachments, Gems are reported to be capable of rolling, furrowing and being power units for sprays, pumps and saws.

Get-Acquainted Tea For Luxton Mothers

LUXTON — A get-acquainted tea will be sponsored by the Mother's Primary discussion group for mothers with children, who will attend school for the first time in September, on June 16, in the primary room of Happy Valley School at 2:30.

Purpose of the tea is to give the child and his mother an opportunity to become acquainted with the teacher and the school-room and also some of his school mates.

Miss Sylvia Abbot, primary teacher, will speak on the subject, "Is Your Child Ready For School?"

The DOCTOR Says:

FLAT FEET MAY RESULT FROM INJURY OR EXCESSIVE WEIGHT

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

There are several causes for flat feet. The trouble may be a result of some birth defect or it may be the result of injury, or paralysis, or simply of breakdown due to excessive weight bearing or use.

Most people think of flat feet as a simple breaking down of the arch lying between the base of the big toe and the heel. When this breaks down it is one aspect of flat feet.

But there is another arch, at the ball of the foot, which also can be broken down and cause a good deal of difficulty. Often the first sign of trouble in this second arch is the formation of a callous which may be tender and painful.

Normal arches are important for comfortable feet, especially for those whose occupations require a great deal of standing or walking. Fortunately, fallen arches can usually be cured by proper treatment, except perhaps in those who are very old, or where the condition has existed for a long time.

In many cases it is not wise to build up the arches to their normal position at once because they have collapsed too far. They are usually best built up gradually with the help of felt pads in the shoes which can be added layer on layer.

People who have broken arches need to be instructed in the proper way to walk so that trouble is less likely to recur. Walking around the floor on the outside edges of the feet, grasping the edge of a carpet with the toes, and other exercises are often useful in restoring strength to the muscles and ligaments which are supposed to hold the arches in normal place.

The use of contrast foot baths, that is, alternately immersing the feet in hot and cold water, sometimes helps to relieve the discomfort and to stimulate the circulation.

Question: Could a dropped stomach cause pain in the pit of the stomach?

Answer: Pain in the pit of the stomach is much more likely to be caused by an ulcer than a "dropped stomach." An X-ray examination and other tests should reveal the cause of this pain.

Want Berry Pickers

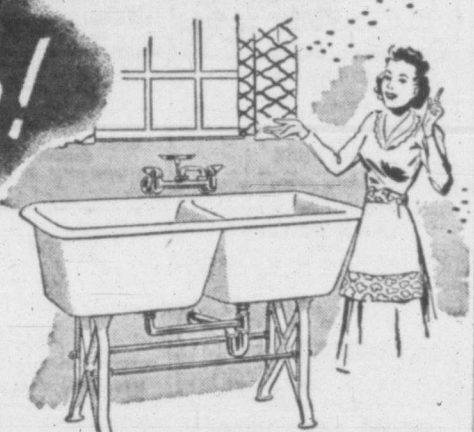

An appeal for berry pickers was issued today from the Farm Labor Board.

Officials said at least 100 pickers were required immediately to harvest Saanich crops of strawberries.

Pickers are paid at the rate of 60 cents for each crate they pick. The Farm Labor Board will place pickers on jobs if they call at 604 Broughton Street.

There are 75 film-producing companies in India.

Make Your Laundry Modern, Too!

CRANE Laundry Tubs help lighten washday blues...

Now new smooth white Crane laundry tubs are ready to take the place of those old rough, grime-collecting tubs that have added to washday woes in the past.

Ask your plumbing and heating contractor about the Crane types available for your selection—single or double—or sink-and-tub combinations for kitchen installation if you wish. Either in porcelain-enamelled cast iron or porcelain-on-steel, they're sturdy and long-lasting, with hard smooth surfaces that are easy to keep bright and clean as new.

With them you can get the smart new "Dial-Ese" faucets that turn on or off with finger-tip pressure.

Crane, too, provides all the dependable piping, valves and fittings required to complete an up-to-date installation.

Crane, with its six Canadian factories, furnishes tens of thousands of items required for plumbing, heating and piping systems.

Eighteen Crane Branches and leading plumbing and heating firms maintain showrooms which permit you, your architect or your plumbing and heating contractor to make convenient selection of all your domestic plumbing and heating requirements.

No Harsh Laxatives in Two Years!

Man Finds Relief With Famous Cereal

If you are nagged by constipation worries, read this unsolicited letter:

"Constipation cost me plenty of money for strong remedies! But since I started eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly over two years ago, I haven't had to take any laxative. Doing fine, feeling fine! Wish everyone troubled as I was by constipation would try it." W. J. Riley, Molsen, Manitoba.

Constipated due to lack of bulk in your diet? You may find relief from sluggishness and taking harsh laxatives. For natural results, try eating an ounce (heaping) of crisp, tasty ALL-BRAN every day. ALL-BRAN is a delicious regulating food, not a purgative. Try one package and if it doesn't help you, you can get double your money back. Simply return empty box to Kellogg's, London, Ont.

In 'Stars Of '49' Revue At Royal Theatre

Dancers in the revue sponsored by Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., on June 20, and featuring pupils of the Florence Clough Dancing Academy, will include, top, left to right, Judy MacCormac, Carol Harris; centre, Lynda Yee, Lynda Petterson, Betty Barton, Barbara Creed, Patsy Elder; front, May Guthrie. The revue, named by Miss Clough "Stars of '49," will include unusual scenery, attractive costumes and intricate dance routines. Proceeds will be used for the T.B. pavilion at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, the Queen Alexandra Solarium and to purchase parcels of food for overseas.

Seek To Maintain Site For Park

PORT ALBERNI—Fear that land they believed set aside for a memorial park, might be chosen as the site of the new post office building here, was expressed by a large delegation of members of Port Alberni branch of the Canadian Legion, at a city council meeting.

A petition has been signed by the veterans asking that property at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Argyle Street, formerly occupied by the Community Hall, be used for park purposes.

Talk that the ground veterans petitioned to reserve for park purposes, would be used as the site of the new post office, prompted the delegation to wait on council and give notice of their disapproval. Veterans felt there were a number of sites just as suitable for a post office building.

Canadian license fees for non-resident anglers are $5.50 for an individual license and $8 for a family license.

Voluntary Health Insurance On Much Wider Basis Proposed

SASKATOON (CP)—Dr. William Wagner of Toronto, president of the Canadian Medical Association, today proposed a six-point program for the expansion of voluntary health insurance plans as a substitute for the "colossal gamble" of socialized medicine in Canada.

In a valedictory address to 1,000 Canadian doctors attending the C.M.A.'s 80th annual meeting here, the retiring president of the association said the majority of Canadian doctors opposed compulsory health insurance because they fear that under it they would be unable to "deliver the goods."

DETERIORATION FEARED

"They fear . . . that state control will lead to deterioration in the conditions of medical practice and in the quality of medical care, with disastrous effects upon the people," he said.

"They also fear, for themselves, loss of dignity and independence, and economic insecurity."

"The problem of the provision of adequate medical care for people in the low and middle-income groups can be solved by proper reorganization and expansion of the voluntary health insurance plans which now are operating . . . in every province in Canada," Mr. Wagner said.

One of the points under his plan for expanding voluntary health schemes calls for the governments of Canada to subsidize the medical care of those "on the thin edge of things."

The other five points are:

1. Co-ordination of the various provincial voluntary plans.
2. The plans to extend protection to individuals as well as groups, in the rural as well as urban population.
3. The plans to accept as subscribers only those whose net income is below $3,000 a year.
4. Doctors, both specialists and general practitioners, to attend all subscribers from minimum fees set by the division of the C.M.A. in the province in which they reside.

INCOME TAX CUT

5. The federal government to permit subscribers to reduce their taxable incomes by the amount they pay in premiums.

Dr. Wagner said that while Canadian doctors were opposed to compulsory health insurance, "we have no desire to preserve an outmoded system of medical practice."

"But we do not believe that it is justifiable to risk the whole structure of Canadian medicine in a colossal gamble and therefore we cannot in conscience approve of any form of compulsory health insurance which has so far been proposed."

World Wheat Pact Virtually Sure Of Early Enactment

WASHINGTON (CP)—The international wheat agreement today was virtually assured of becoming effective following United States approval of the four-year plan designed to stabilize world wheat prices.

The pact, signed here in March by five exporting and 36 importing countries, was ratified Monday by the Senate without opposition on a voice vote. Only about 20 Senators were in the chamber when the agreement was approved with unexpected speed and a minimum of opposition.

The United States is the second signatory to ratify the accord, which provides for exchange of 456,283,389 bushels of wheat annually at a top price of $1.80 a bushel.

Canada, the chief exporting country, in April approved the treaty, which also provides for the minimum price to drop 10 cents a year from $1.50 in the first year to $1.20 in the fourth.

Together, the quotas of the Dominion and the United States make up more than 80 per cent of the total quantity. That figure had to be reached before the agreement could become operative on the exporter's side.

ACTION BY IMPORTERS
Although no importing countries have yet ratified the agreement, enough are expected to give approval before the July 1 deadline to make the importing side effective.

Most importers have been waiting United States action before taking ratification steps, knowing that without American participation the scheme would fall through.

Britain has the largest quota of the importing group, contracting for 177,067,948 bushels annually. The pact, with its maximum price of $1.80, will not affect the Anglo-Canadian agreement, under which the Dominion will ship Britain 140,000,000 bushels at $2 a bushel.

Drew Answers Hecklers In Campaign Speech At Hamilton

HAMILTON (CP)—George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, lashed out Tuesday night at Communists and at the C.C.F. as he ran into the heaviest heckling of his five-week Trans-Canada federal election campaign tour.

Addressing a political rally in this heavily industrialized centre, he was alternately booed and heckled. Before he concluded, he said he wanted to "thank the small but noisy group for a demonstration of the kind of thing that we are trying to wipe out" in the June 27 general election.

The interjections covered a wide variety of subjects, including relations of the Progressive Conservatives with Premier Duplessis of Quebec, defence policies and communism.

When he repeated his familiar criticism of Defence Minister Claxton and the use of North Star aircraft by the defence forces, a heckler shouted: "Secondary issues."

"Defence is not a secondary issue," replied Mr. Drew. "Those who would like to have us believe that it is are those Communists who are traitors to Canada."

A smattering of boos mingled with cheers as Mr. Drew entered a Hamilton theatre to speak in support of Progressive Conservative candidates in this district.

Dealing with social security, he said his party had put forward the greatest social security program ever advanced by any party.

Veteran Actor Dies

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Frank Lea Short, 73, former actor, director and president of the American Theatre Association, died Tuesday. During his acting career he appeared with such stars as John Drew, Nazimova and Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske. Later he was stage manager for the late Leslie Howard and Helen Hayes.
